WASHINGTON AFFAIRS

Col. Raster's Resignation of the Chicago Collectorship.

M. Bellonnet to be Transferred to Portugal.

The Tenth National Bank to be Thoroughly Investigated.

Dana's Charges Against Secretary Robeson Still Unsustained.

Continuation of the French Arms Investigation.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Mr. HERMAN RASTER, editor of the Illinois Staats Zeitung, has tendered his resignation as Collector of Internal Revenue for the First District of Illinois, and Mr. SAMUEL A. IRVIN, First Deputy under Mr. RASTER, has been appointed to fill the vacancy. Mr. RASTER relieves himself from official responsibility for two reasons: First, that he may be enabled to give more time to the increased demands of his editorial position; and second, that he may render a more independent and effective support to the principles of the Republican Party, in doing which he believes he is called upon to advocate both the renomination and re-election of President GRANT. This he will continue to do, and, relieved from the possible imputations attaching to the holding of an office, his action will not only be more independent, but will undoubtedly have a deservedly increased influence. Col. RASTER's action gratifies many of his friends here, and of one thing they feel assured, the Schurz party will get no comfort from him.

WHISKY AND TOBACCO TAX.

The Ways and Means Committee were this morning engaged on the revision of the text of the amendments to the whisky and tobacco provisions. The consolidation of the several taxes on whisky require a careful revision of the old provisions, in order that the sum fixed may not exceed or fall below the aggregate of the taxes as now paid.

A CHANGE IN THE FRENCH LEGATION.

It is reported here that M. DE BELLONNET, the French Chargé d' Affaires, has been transferred from this Legation to that of Portugal. As has been intimated in these dispatches, this result was to have been expected. When the letter of Secretary BELKNAP to Secretary FISH appeared in the Sumner preamble, Mr. FISH addressed a note to M. BELLONNET, requesting an explanation. M. BELLONNET's reply was offensive and discourteous to an extreme degree, and Mr. FISH promptly placed it in Mr. WASHBURNE's hands to be laid before the French Government. A very prompt result has been reached. M. BELLONNET's connection with the matter of the French arms investigation was doubtless wholly unintentional, and he has been inveigled into it so far as he has gone by his meddlesome friend CHAMBRUN.

THE NEW-YORK TENTH NATIONAL.

The New-York Tenth National Bank's operations will be officially investigated by the House Banking and Currency Committee, Mr. HOOPER having today secured power to send for persons and papers in the matter. This action may result seriously for the institution. Subpœnas have already been prepared for JAY GOULD, HENRY N. SMITH, and PALMER, the Cashier of the bank. Their presence is required immediately, and the next subpœna will be for DANIEL DREW.

CIVIL RIGHTS.

The Civil Rights bill made two steps on its passage through the House, today, and a direct vote shows that in spite of fears to the contrary it has a majority in its favor. The morning hour expiring, it again went over, there being two dilatory motions pending. This bill has now been for nine weeks before the House, and in spite of today's progress, there is no probability of its passage this session.

A REMARKABLE SCENE.

A remarkable scene took place in the House today. Mr. NEGLEY, of Pennsylvania, asked leave to introduce for reference to the Judiciary Committee a resolution reciting that the Union Pacific is indebted for a large amount to the United States, and that nevertheless was receiving large sums from the Government, and providing that the President appoint a commission of three to inquire into the financial condition of the road and ascertain if its funds had been applied according to law, and if it were able to liquidate its indebtedness to the United States. Mr. BROOKS, of New-York, promptly objected, and Gen. NEGLEY raised the point of order that a stockholder of the road was preventing needed legislation. BROOKS retorted with a good deal of heat that NEGLEY was "a tool of Wall-street," "a jobber in stocks," and was using his position here to influence the market. He said that the proofs that this was the fact had been telegraphed him that morning, and he held them in his hand. NEGLEY denied any complicity with stock brokers, and expressed perfect willingness to hear Mr. BROOK's papers read. Gen. BANKS objected to this, however, and the whole matter was dropped. Mr. BROOKS declines revealing the contents of the papers he possesses unless the Negley resolution is pressed. It is understood, however, that they seriously implicate one GEORGE B. COWLAM, who is one of the clerks and messengers of Gen. BUTLER. There are rumors about THOMAS SCOTT's connection with the Negley resolution.

THE PUBLIC LANDS.

Mr. COGHLAN, of California, introduced the worst piece of buncombe seen in the House for many a day in a proposition to so amend the Constitution that the public lands shall hereafter be disposed of to actual settlers only. The majority of the House is in favor of devoting the lands to no other purpose, but they voted very generally against a proposition to patch the Constitution accordingly.

THE NAVY DEPARTMENT.

Continuation of the Robeson Investigation—Mr. Dana's Charges Still Unsustained.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The Navy Department Investigation Committee resumed its examination of witnesses called by Secretary ROBESON to-night. Pay Director BRADFORD was the first witness, and confirmed the facts stated in the testimony of Pay Director RUSSELL, who was subsequently recalled. These gentlemen, representing the Navy Department respectively at New-York and Philadelphia, swore most positively that they were never called upon, advised or requested by the Secretary, either directly or indirectly, to favor any party in the purchase of supplies, &c. They effectively squelched certain charges by testifying that they never bought bricks from CATTELL, or sent bricks to California.

Chief Engineeer WOOD, who has charge of the building of the torpedo-boats, testified that the iron of which they are being built is fibrous, not chrystaline, as show by an inspection since Mr. HEWITT's testimony, which shows that the iron is all that could be required. This witness was a member of the last board appointed to examine the Secor claims. Some 200 items of these claims were laid aside, and many were rejected. The charges thus disposed of resulted from orders from the Department for changes, and were not laid aside because the changes were disapproved, but because the prices charged were considered too large.

JAMES SECOR, senior member of the Secor firm, was the next witness, and testified that none of the claims of the firm for extra work were ever paid before they were considered by the Boggs Board. He explained some of the details of the changes in the contracts which were the occasion of the charges for extra service; he also stated that his firm got the money for the audited bills, and kept it all themselves; he was not then acquainted with, and did not see, Secretary ROBESON.

CHARLES SECOR, another member of the firm, testified that Col. SIM. JOHNSON was attorney of the firm, and received $1,000 as his fees as attorney to present the law points of the claim; none of the money was paid to any Government officer; no promise was ever made of money or anything else to any public officer, to secure favorable action on the bills of the firm; the firm yet claims a large amount from the Government, and is not engaged in Government work of any kind; none of the CATTELS have been employed by the firm in any capacity whatever; the firm built five iron vessels during the war, with turrets, and were urged to do their work promptly by Admiral FARRAGUT and others, because some of the vessels were required for the capture of Mobile. The Committee then adjourned until to-morrow night with the understanding, on the part of the Secretary, that the investigation shall be closed in two days.

SALES OF ARMS.

Continuation of the Examination Before the Senate Committee.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The Senate Arms Committee met this morning at 10½ o'clock.

DANIEL SHED was examined by Senator SCHURZ and testified that he owned a number of lighters at New-York, and during the Franco-Prussian war lightered goods for the New-York Ordnance Office, receiving his orders from Mr. HALL, and all the receipts for the goods he delivered from Mr. REILLY; sometimes he delivered goods direct to vessels, and sometimes at the docks.

By Senator HAMLIN—Witness had no official connection with the Ordnance Office, which employed him as they would other parties.

The Chairman, Mr. HAMLIN, laid before the Committee a letter from Gen. SCHOFIELD saying his recollection of the law of 1868, providing for the sale of arms, &c., substantially agreed with the testimony of Gen. DYER. The Chairman also laid before the Committee the following letter addressed to him by Mr. FISH:

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON, April 5, 1872.

SIR: Referring to your letter of the 18th ult. upon the subject of a resolution alleged to have been adopted by a Committee of the French National Assembly on War Contracts, inquiring into the conduct of United States officials concerned therein, and to my reply of the 20th ult., I now have the honor to inclose, for the information of the Committee of which you are the Chairman, a translation of a note of the 30th ult. upon the subject from the Chargé d'Affaires of France. I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,
HAMILTON FISH.

[Translation.]

LEGATION OF FRANCE IN THE UNITED STATES,
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 30, 1872.

MR. SECRETARY OF STATE: The Commission appointed by the National Assembly of France to investigate the matter of the purchases made during the war, has been surprised by a telegram, published by the New-York Associated Press, which attributes to it the adoption of a resolution of inquiry with regard to the conduct of the officers of the United States. It has requested the Minister of Foreign Affairs to contradict this report, and I hasten to inform you officially, by order of M. DE REMUSAT, that it did not adopt the resolution in question, and that it has addressed no request for investigation to the Government of the United States. Be pleased to accept, Mr. Secretary of State, the assurance of my high consideration.

HENRY DE BELLONNETT.

To Hon. HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

Mr. HARTLEY, of the firm of SCHUYLER, HARTLEY & GRAHAM, was sworn and examined by Senator SCHURZ: In 1870 the firm with which he was connected sent samples of their arms to France, Germany and England, and witness and another gentleman went to France; on the 4th of September, the same year, a contract was made with the French Government to furnish arms; Col. SQUIRE never told witness his bids had been refused by the War Department, but the witness learned the fact from another source; the contract of BALLENTINE, BILLINGS & ST. LAURENT for batteries, &c., was offered to witness' firm, and they agreed to take it on certain conditions, to which BALLENTINE, BILLINGS & ST. LAURENT would not agree; the contract was offered to witness by Mr. STEINBERGER; witness did not know what other people thought with regard to the destination of the arms shipped in 1870 and 1871, but he believed they were going to France; some of the goods shipped to France by his firm were marked, according to a telegram from France, "R. F.," meaning Republique Française; they, however, sent thither other goods not thus marked, but not through French officials; witness saw Gen. DYER and Col. CRISPIN, and asked them how many Enfields they would sell him.

By Mr. HAMLIN—The sales of arms and ordnance stores were favorable to the Government when they received the contract from the French Government; they asked the Secretary of State whether they would be allowed to ship the goods to France, to which the Secretary replied, if they did so it would be entirely at their own risk; the firm had recently sold arms to Russia and Mexico; since the close of the Franco-Prussian war, they had sold to foreign Governments thirty, forty or fifty thousand stand of arms; arms were also sold to South America.

Witness was further interrogated by Senator SCHURZ and members of the Committee. He knew of no Government officers who had received a dollar from the sales; certain it is his firm never paid a dollar to them or any of the French officials either, nor did they pay any other person a dollar; they conducted their own purchases.

E. S. ALLEN, chief armorer of the Springfield Armory, testified as to the making of a lot of Remington rifles for the navy at that place, and as to other matters in that connection, the arms having been sold to PAULTENAY, TRIMBLE & CO.; that firm paid for taking off the browning from 2,178 guns which had been distributed to naval posts, but subsequently returned to be brightened at the armory; after the 10,000 guns had been sold to PAULTENAY, TRIMBLE & CO. the armory manufactured other guns for the navy; with the present force at the armory it could turn out 150 Springfield breech-loaders a day, but if the full machinery were worked between 200 and 300 a day; it would take three months to prepare to turn out 1,000 a day, as during the late war, the capacity increasing from day to day until that number be reached.

The Committee adjourned until to-morrow morning at 10½.

THE INDIANS.

Proclamation of Gen. McCook Against Occupation of the Black Hills of Dakota.

YANKTON, Dakota Territory, April 8.—The following proclamation has been issued by Gen. McCOOK, in the temporary absence of Gov. BURBANK, in pursuance of orders from the Department of the Interior:

By the Governor of Dakotah Territory: Information having reached the office of the Executive of said Territory through the various sources to the effect that combinations of men have been, and are now being made, with a view to entering and occupying the region of country known as the Black Hills of Dakotah, which is within the reservation belonging to the Sioux Indians, under the plea that said Black Hill country has valuable mineral deposits as well as quantities of timber fit for lumber.

Now, therefore, I, EDWIN S. McCOOK, Secretary and Acting Governor of the Territory of Dakota, by direction of the President of the President of the United States, through Hon. COLUMBUS DELANO, Secretary of the Interior, do hereby warn all such unlawful combinations of men of whatever locality, or under whatever plea or excuse operating, that any such attempt to violate our treaty stipulations with these Indians, or disturb the peace of said territory by an effort to invade, occupy or settle upon said reservation, will not only be illegal and likely to disturb the peace between the United States and said Indians, but will be disapproved by Government, and if such efforts are persisted in Government will use so much of its civil and military power as may be necessary to remove from this Indian Territory all persons who go there in violation of law.

In testimony whereof I have hereunder set my hand and affixed the seal of the said Territory. Given at my office, in the City of Yankton, this 6th day of April, A. D. 1872.

EDWIN S. McCOOK,
Secretary and Acting Governor of Dakato Territory.

Jersey City and Hoboken Charter Elections.

The annual Charter election takes place in Jersey City and Hoboken today. In Jersey City the Democrats have nominated Mayor O'NEILL, and STEPHEN QUAIFE has been nominated by the Republicans.

In Hoboken FREDRICK S. SCHMERSAHL, the present Mayor, is the candidate of both parties for that office. He is a Republican and last year upon the Republican ticket defeated HAZEN KIMBALL, the then Democratic Mayor. He was this year first nominated by the Democratic Convention and afterward by the Republicans, who claim him as their candidate.

MORE FIRE-DAMP.

Another Explosion in the Pine Brook Shaft.

One Man Instantly Killed and Several Fatally Injured—Recklessness of the Miners the Cause of the Disaster.

From Our Own Correspondent.

SCRANTON, Monday, April 8.

This city was again thrown into a state of excitement this morning by the announcement that another accident had occurred at the Pine Brook Shaft. Nearly everybody hurried toward the Pine Brook shaft, which is situated at the lower end of Pennsylvania-avenue. The majority of the people reached the scene in time to see one dead man and two horribly burned miners brought out of the mine.

Without doubt, Pine Brook Shaft, of Scranton, is the most dangerous mine, so far as fire-damp is concerned, in the anthracite region. What is known as the "G," or Fourteen-foot vein, is entirely worked out, and the Clark vein being the only one worked. In the portion known to miners as the "dip" gas or sulphur exist in large quantities. Accidents occur so frequently in this mine that MORGAN BOWEN, the mine-boss, has been compelled to instruct his fire-boss, HENRY DAVIES, to warn all miners and laborers not to enter the mine until the word "all right" is given.

It appears that HENRY DAVIES, the fire-boss, entered the mine at 5 o'clock this morning. He carefully scrutinized every portion of the dangerous "dip." As DAVIES progressed from one chamber to another, with his safety-lamp, he found the roof of several chambers completely covered with the red substance, known to miners alone as sulphur. He immediately retreated to the surface, where he met a large number of miners and laborers, with their dinner pails waiting for the word to enter. He told all those who worked in the neighborhood of the "dip" that they must not enter the mine until the inside boss, Mr. BOWEN, arrived. A few moments afterward, a miner, named JAMES STONE, who worked a chamber in the "dip," approached the shaft. The fire-boss warned him also, but he managed to enter the mine notwithstanding the warning given. At 6½, the mine-boss arrived, and on being made acquainted with the condition of the mine, he immediately mounted a car, accompanied with the fire-boss, and entered the mine. Mr. BOWEN with rapid strides made for the "dip," and ordered every man home. "There is no work today for you men," said he, "go home as soon as you can." JOHN WELSH and MARTIN GERRITY, two of the miners, informed BOWEN that they would go home if they were allowed to go to their boxes. BOWEN consented, and ordered the fire-boss to accompany them. GERRITY's box was visited and safely locked, and while they were in WELSH's chamber the explosion took place in STONE's chamber. Fortunately, nearly all the men had previously left, according to Mr. BOWEN's orders, otherwise a fearful loss of life would have occurred. ANTHONY CAMPBELL was taken out dead. He was a young man, employed as laborer in STONE's chamber. Several attempts were made by Mr. BOWEN and the men to rescue CAMPBELL while the fire was still burning, but the heat was so great, and the air was so scarce, that it was found to be impossible to enter the chamber. The outer roof was ablaze, so they were compelled to retreat in order to inhale fresh air. JAMES STONE, a miner, and PATRICK O'HARA, a laborer, managed to creep to a place of safety, assisted by BOWEN. On the fourth attempt, ANTHONY CAMPBELL's body was secured, and carried to the surface. Restoratives were applied, but without effect, for the man was beyond resuscitation. His body was carted home, followed by an immense concourse of friends and acquaintances. JAMES STONE and PATRICK O'HARA were taken home, but as they have inhaled the noxious gas, they cannot recover, and their constant cry is "water, water."

Mine Inspector P. BLEWITT subsequently investigated the affair, when it was found that the cause of the disaster was entirely the fault of JAMES STONE, he having entered the mine contrary to the orders of HENRY DAVIES, the fire boss. Inspector BLEWITT, a careful and exacting officer, has given positive orders not to allow any man to be employed in the Pine Brook Shaft hereafter unless he fully understands his business. He must obey orders given him by the fire or mine boss, or leave the mine forever. This order will be strictly adhered to in the future.

THE FLORIDA GOVERNORSHIP.

Proclamation by Gov. Reed—The Legality of His Position to be Tested Before the Supreme Court.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

GOODMAN'S STATION, Fla., April 8.—Gov. REED has issued a proclamation declaring his intention of retaining possession of the Gubernatorial office. The proclamation is attested by the Secretary of State, and bears the great seal of the State. This will compel a decision by the Supreme Court. It is the opinion of the best lawyers of the State that the decision will be in Gov. REED's favor.

C. H. W.

Dispatch to the Associated Press.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 8.—Gov. REED issued a proclamation today, which is attested by the great seal of the State, claiming that the action of the Senate in adjourning without giving him a trial operated as his discharge and acquittal from the charges preferred against him. The proclamation concludes as follows:

But now so it is that the said SAMUEL T. DAY, regardless of the high and sacred rights of the people and of their majority, as imparted to me at the polls, unmindful of the confusion, delay, and actual public injury resulting therefrom, has made and is making removals from office and appointments thereto without authority therefore, thereby calling for this my proclamation, that to the end the rights of the people and the proper exercise of lawful authority shall be maintained, that the public credit be protected, that the property of the State be preserved, that the imposition and collection of oppressing taxes, without authority of law, be stopped, that the free and equal exercise of political rights in the elections soon to occur be had, and that all things whatsoever affecting the public welfare be legitimately done.

Now, therefore, I, HARRISON REED, Governor of the State of Florida, do hereby proclaim my authority and power in the performance of all the chief executive duties, and that the acts and doings of SAMUEL T. DAY, since the acts and doings of the Assembly, Senate, and High Court of Impeachment, as before recited, to be without authority of law, and forbid him, and all persons acting under and by his authority, from exercising any official power or authority under peril of the law, and forbid all obedience to them; and I command full obedience to the lawful authority of the duly elected Chief Magistrate of the State.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and cause the great seal of the State to be affixed at Tallahassee, the capital, this eighth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and of the Independence of the United States the ninety-sixth.

(Signed,) HARRISON REED,
Governor of Florida.

Attest: JONATHAN C. GIBBS, Secretary of State.

Gov. REED today appointed Gen. BERNEY as Attorney-General, in the place of BISBEE, appointed by DAY, and F. G. WHEATON Judge of the Duval Circuit, in place of GILLES.

THE LATE PROF. MORSE.

Preparations for the Observances in Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The Committee having charge of the memorial services in honor of Prof. MORSE, to be held in the House of Representatives Tuesday evening, 16th instant, held a full meeting today, and reported the near completion of arrangements which will make the event one of great interest. Leading members of both Houses of Congress will deliver short addresses, and OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES will probably read a poem, written expressly for the occasion. Letters have been addressed to the Mayors of the principal cities of the United States, requesting them to call public meetings on the same night, and a plan is being perfected to hold similar meetings throughout the world, to communicate by telegraph with the meeting here. It was resolved that the following invitation be extended:

To His Excellency the Governor of ——

The National Telegraph Monument Association have appointed you one of the Vice-Presidents on the occasion of the memorial services in honor of SAMUEL F. B. MORSE, to be held in the House of Representatives on Tuesday evening, April 16. Telegraph your acceptance, and if you cannot be present, the appointment of a proxy residing or sojourning here. Address

A. S. SOLOMONS,
Chairman Committee of Arrangements.

It was further agreed to invite the widow and family of the late Professor to be present upon the occasion, and to become the guests of the nation. Rev. Dr. ADAMS, pastor of the Professor, is invited to open the proceedings with prayer. Admission to the building is to be had by card only.

ALBANY.

The New-York Charter—Mr. Tiemann Thinks he has Killed it—The Assembly Names a Committee of Conference—The Old Board of Aldermen.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

ALBANY, April 8.—The Legislature seems to have suddenly woke up to the necessity of doing something with regard to a charter for the City of New-York. Both Houses made the subject the main feature of the session this evening. In the Senate Mr. TIEMANN introduced a preamble and resolution in which he took it for granted that his efforts to kill the Charter of the Committee of Seventy had proved successful, and directing the Senate Committee on Cities to patch up the Ring Charter of 1870 and report the result of their patch-work on or before Saturday next. The attendance of Senators being rather slim the resolution was laid over by request until to-morrow.

The following is the resolution in full:

Whereas, The hundred days for which members of the Legislature are entitled by the Constitution to receive compensation for their services will expire on Wednesday, April 10 inst., and it is expected that the Legislature will adjourn at an early day thereafter; and

Whereas, No act making provision for the Government of the City of New-York has yet been passed, and

Whereas, Serious doubts are entertained whether the differences existing between the two Houses of the Legislature on the bill now pending can be reconciled; and

Whereas, It is feared that the bill will be lost by the disagreement between the two Houses, or if they should agree and pass the bill, that it will not be approved and signed by the Governor, and that the Legislature may adjourn without making a charter for the City of New-York; and

Whereas, It is of the utmost importance that some legislation should be had at this session of the Legislature for the purpose of improving existing government of the City of New-York; therefore,

Resolved, That the Committee on Cities be and is hereby instructed to examine the charter passed April 26, 1870, and the amendments thereto, passed April 18, 1871, and propose such amendments thereto as will relieve it of the obnoxious features and provisions it now contains, provide for an early election of a Mayor and other officers to be elected by the people, and such other amendments as the exigencies of the times and the public sentiment of the City of New-York seem to demand, and report such amendments by bill, on or before April 13.

In the Assembly, Col. HAWKINS moved to take the Seventy's Charter, as amended by the Senate, from the table, which was carried by a vote of 61 to 30, in spite of the opposition of MAT. BEMUS and those opponents of the charter whose programme has been to kill it by delay. Mr. ALVORD then moved that the Assembly disagree from the Senate amendments, and that a Conference Committee be appointed, and the Senate be asked to appoint a similar committee. Mr. JACOBS wished to amend by referring to the Standing Committee on Cities, a motion which Mr. ALVORD characterized as a trick to delay action. He warned the Republicans not to adjourn this Legislature without giving the relief to the people of New-York that they asked for. Mr. JACOBS denied that his design was to delay action, and thought there was no danger from present prospects of the Legislature adjourning for two months to come. Mr. ALVORD replied that a good portion of the delay in the Legislature here this Winter was owing to the fact that the majority had granted to the minority the utmost latitute in debating all measures, an indulgence that was not extended to the opposition when the Democrats were in the majority.

After some further discussion Mr. ALVORD's motion was carried by a vote of 56 to 28, and the Speaker appointed as the Assembly Committee on Conference Messrs. ALVORD, HAWKINS, FORT, MORTON and PAIGE, all Republicans except PAIGE, who was elected as a Reform Democrat. All the members of the Committee voted for the Seventy's Charter when it passed the House, and, so far as can be ascertained, none of them will consent to the amendments made to it by the Senate.

The Assembly then took up the third reading of bills, and the act repealing the law of last Winter, extending the term of office of the old Board of Aldermen, regarding which a Constitutional question has been raised, was unanimously passed.

The bill of Col. HAWKINS, relative to naturalization papers issued by the Supreme and Superior Courts in 1868, was lost, by a vote of 48 to 31, and a reconsideration was moved and laid on the table.

The bill of Senator BENEDICT for the consolidation of the City and County of New-York under one financial administration, was up in Committee of the Whole, and ordered to a third reading.

REFEREES AND SALARIES OF JUDGES.

Among the following bills introduced were two by Mr. BENEDICT, relative to referees in the City of New-York. The bill provides for the appointment by the Governor and Senate, of twenty-five persons to hold the office of referees to whom all cases shall be referred. Also, to fix the salaries of certain judicial officers in the First Judicial District. The bill gives the Judges $6,500 each; the Judges of the Supreme, Common Pleas, Recorder, City Judge, Serrogate and Marine Court Judges, $7,500 each; Police Justices and of District Courts, $6,500.

BILLS PASSED.

The following bills were passed in the Assembly:

Repealing the act of 1871; extending the offices of Aldermen and Assistant-Aldermen of the City of New-York.

To charter the Buffalo and East Side Railroad Company.

To erect an armory at Greenpoint, Seventeenth Ward, Brooklyn.

Providing for committing to the care of managers the House of the Good Shepherd, Brooklyn, for unfortunate women.

To enable non-resident guardians to obtain property in this State belonging to their wards.

Applying the provisions of the Mechanics' Lien law to the construction of piers, bulkheads, &c.

THE WEATHER.

Synopsis and Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 9—1 A. M.—The barometer continues highest over the Atlantic States. Partially cloudy but pleasant weather has prevailed from Florida to North Carolina, but over the rest of the country east of the Rocky Mountains cloudy weather, with rain. Fresh to brisk southerly winds have prevailed from the upper to the lower lake region, and southerly over the Gulf States. Heavy rains have been reported from the Ohio Valley.

PROBABILITIES.

The lowest barometer, now over Wisconsin, will move north-eastwardly into Canada, followed by brisk and probably high north-westerly winds over the upper and lower lakes; rising barometer, north-westerly winds and clearing weather will prevail throughout throughout the Mississippi Valley by Tuesday morning, and extend eastward over the Upper Lake region, the Ohio Valley and the Western Middle States by Tuesday evening, and over New-England during Tuesday night or Wednesday morning. Cautionary signals are ordered for Milwaukee, Chicago, Grand Haven, Detroit, Toledo and Cleveland.

Cruelty to a Child—Inquest on the Body of a Young Girl at Poughkeepsie.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 8, 1872.—The body of a young girl named MARY LONG was exhumed by Coroner ANDREWS, yesterday, at the solicitation of her friends. When she died her body was left alone, and one eye and the nose were torn away by rats. She was buried next day after her death in a secret manner, no funeral service being performed. The evidence at the inquest showed that for several years past her father, EDWARD LONG, treated her in a brutal manner. He acknowledged that he sometimes tied her hands behind her and used a gad on her. One witness testified to seeing her bare-headed, bare-shouldered and bare-footed, driving a team of horses for her father before a harrow in a field. The father walked behind her sowing seed and swinging a stout black whip, with which he at times would lash the girl over the shoulders and legs; always using the butt end of the whip on her shoulders. It was also stated that he tied her hands behind her and threw her into a creek.

The verdict of the Coroner's Jury stated that she died of exposure, but did not in any way refer to her father.

ANOTHER EARTHQUAKE

Half of the City of Antioch, in Syria, Destroyed.

Fifteen Hundred Persons Killed—Awful Scenes—Dismay of the Inhabitants—History of Earthquakes.

LONDON, April 8.—A telegram from Constantinople brings intelligence that the City of Antioch, in Syria, has been visited by an earthquake, causing terrible loss of life. The dispatch states that one half of the city was totally destroyed and 1,500 persons lost their lives. Great distress prevails in that portion of the city not demolished, and the remaining inhabitants are sadly in need of assistance.

The City of Antioch has suffered in former ages far more severely than on the present occasion. In the year 115, while the Roman Emperor, TRAJAN, was visiting Antioch—then called from its wealth and influence, the "Queen of the East"—an earthquake leveled almost the entire city to the ground, burying thousands of its inhabitants beneath the surface of the earth. It would probably never have recovered from the mishap but for the presence of the Emperor, who was himself slightly hurt, and whose personal sympathies were enlisted for the relief of the sufferers. The city was rebuilt by his assistance, but in the year 458 was again visited by a shock almost as severe as the first. But a worse fate was yet to come to it, for in the year 526, while the inhabitants and multitudes of people from the surrounding country were celebrating the Feast of the Ascension, the earth opened and engulfed a large part of the city, shattering and destroying the remainder. It is impossible to calculate the amount of suffering occasioned by this single disaster, but it is known that more than 250,000 lives were lost. About sixty years later the city was again the scene of a like calamity, and again in the year 1822. Some idea may be formed of the effect of these visitations by the fact they have reduced the city from its proud position as the metropolis of Western Asia to that of a small trading town of not more than 6,000 inhabitants.

Description of Other Earthquakes.

There is no natural phenomenon which is held by all mankind in greater dread than earthquakes. Our ideas of permanence, solidity and strength are based upon the condition of the earth, as we daily see it; so that when the firm ground shakes under us, there naturally comes over the mind a feeling of abject helplessness.

No part of the world's surface is apparently free from these dreaded visitations, although from their extreme rarity in the eastern portions of our country and in Northern Europe, we are not accustomed to consider them in the light of impending dangers. Indeed, they are naturally associated with countries more or less volcanic in their formation, though at times, and without premonition, they appear at places where they are least expected, so that there is hardly a square mile in this or the neighboring States, that does not bear some tokens of the visit of an earthquake. Space seems to offer no barrier, as one shock has been known to extend over more than one-eighth of the entire earth's surface, only losing in force as the wave motion extends outward from a common centre. So frequent are they, that it is estimated that not a day passes without one or more shocks being experienced in some quarter of the globe, and at least every month there is one of sufficient destructiveness to make it a matter of general importance. Although the force of earthquakes is not now so great as that exercised in prehistoric times, yet the records of the past are filled with long, sorrowful accounts of the destruction of cities, and the loss of thousands upon thousands of human lives, by their terrible agency. China seems to have often suffered in this way, in the earlier periods of her history, though the chronicles are in so confused a state that it is impossible to determine the particular circumstances with any accuracy. In the account of the number of lives lost on one occasion the estimates are placed at over half a million.

The year 1755 has been made memorable by being the date of the most destructive earthquake of modern times. This took place on the 1st of November, at Lisbon, Portugal. The doomed inhabitants were warned, a minute or two prior to its approach, by a low, rumbling sound, which seemed to proceed from beneath the ground, and then the shock came, which in an instant threw the greater part of the buildings in the city to the ground. The first shock being followed by others, the terror-stricken people sought refuge, with what things they could carry, on a large marble quay that had just been built at great expense. There seemed little danger of anything falling on them and crushing them when so situated, and the quay was soon crowded. The earth, however, opened beneath it, and it crumbled away like sand, carrying down not only the crowds that had sought refuge on it, but all the vessels in the vicinity, burying them together deep under the earth, for no token of them ever floated to the surface, and the water where the quay had been, which was before quite shallow, was found to be more than 600 feet in depth. The upheaval of the earth had driven much of the water out of the harbor, but now it returned in a gigantic tidal wave, nearly sixty feet in height, which swept in over the prostrate city, drowning those who had not escaped to the high grounds in the rear. Sixty thousand persons perished on this terrible occasion, and Lisbon has never wholly recovered from the effect it produced on her material prosperity. The influence of this earthquake is estimated to have been felt over an extent of the earth's surface equal to four times that of Europe. It was felt on the coast of Sweden, and springs of hot water appeared in some of the mountains of Germany. At the West India Islands the ocean suddenly became black, and rose along the shore twenty feet in height. Even on Lake Ontario, along the coast of our own State, the motion was perceptible, while hundreds of chimneys were thrown down throughout New-England.

The next great earthquake that has a place in history is the one that took place March 26, 1812, at the City of Caracas. Here the destruction was produced by only one shock, the churches and houses coming down in a mingled mass, crushing in their fall more than 12,000 of the inhabitants. In the year 1857 the entire lower end of the Italian peninsula was subjected to a series of shocks which lasted through several weeks. Naples fortunately escaped any serious injury, but the provincial towns were many of them entirely destroyed, and 30,000 persons are supposed to have perished. The following year witnessed the great earthquake at the capital of Mexico, which caused great destruction of life and property. In 1859, Quito, in Ecuador, was visited by a shock which buried in the ruins 5,000 of her inhabitants. Since that time there have been several severe shocks on the west coast of South America, in one of which a United States gun-boat was carried by the return wave far up into the country, and left there high and dry. In these later earthquake shocks the loss of life has fortunately been comparatively small.

California, and the adjacent sections of our country, have been subject to considerable disturbance of this nature, none of them, however, approaching in seriousness to these great convulsions already spoken of. The destruction to life during the earthquakes at San Francisco, and other towns on the Pacific coast, has been due more to the style of building than to the extreme severity of the shock. Only a year and a half since, our Eastern States experienced a slight earthquake shock, which was felt from Philadelphia to Canada, but no great damage was done. Earthquakes have taken place in almost every kind of weather, so that no certain test can be made in this respect; generally, however, they occur in damp, close, uncomfortable days. The force of these movements is shown by the effects they have produced at various places on the earth's surface. At an earthquake in Chili in 1822, the country between the Andes and the Pacific Ocean was raised to a height of from two to seven feet, which increased elevation it has ever since retained, yet this area was much larger in extent than the State of New-York. About two hundred years ago that part of the Island of Jamaica, containing the capital, suddenly sank below the surface of the sea, and the vessels in the harbor were driven over the roofs of the houses. In 1772 a volcano on the Island of Java suddenly sank below the surface of the earth, carrying with it a large number of native villages that were clustered around its base. Mountains have been known to spring up in a night out of the depths of the Mediterranean Sea, and cases are reported as having occurred in the Behring and China Seas. These tremendous upheavals illustrate better than anything else the fearful power of this force of nature which sleeps under our feet at all times, so quietly, indeed, that we almost forget its existence until some terrible calamity like the present one at Antioch obliges us to acknowledge and dread its ungovernable strength.

Some Account of the Locality Rendered Famous by the Severe Earthquake Shocks on the 26th of March.

From the San Francisco Bulletin, April 1.

Inyo County, which adjoins San Bernardino and Tulare Counties, in South-eastern California, lies entirely east of the Sierra Nevada, comprising a territory which unites the base of our great range with the Nevada plateau. Its name is derived from a minor range running through the centre of the county, nearly north and south, and forming a continuation of the White Mountain range, in Mono County, on the north. The main crest of the Sierra forms the western boundary of the county, and is dominated by Mounts Tyndall and Whitney, respectively from 14,000 to 15,000 feet high, the latter being the highest known peak in the Union. The Panamint and Armagosa ranges lie to the eastward of the Inyo range, and are similar in character to the mountains which rise above the level of the rest of the Nevada plateau. The famous Owen's Lake, a body of salt water twenty-two by eight miles in extent, which is sunk at least 150 feet below sea level, and is probably the bed of an extinct salt lake. The general features of the country are ruggedness, sterility and volcanic desolation, ending at the south in a complete desert. Along Owen's River, however, there is considerable arable land, where a few settlements have been made, as centres of supply for the rich vein mines of silver and gold being developed in the mountains.

Lone Pine is the centre of a mining district of that name, situated on the western base of the Inyo mountains, not very far east of Mount Whitney, and containing a population of probably not more than 500. Like all other mining camps, the buildings of Lone Pine, comprising about twenty shops in addition to dwellings, are slight frame structures, or cabins. The earthquake must have been very severe that could prostrate and ruin fifty such houses in one place, and destroy twenty-three lives. The detailed accounts, which may be expected in a few days, will doubtless possess thrilling interest. At Independence, the county-seat of Inyo, the brick Court-house was prostrated, a child killed, and the earth cracked for a distance of fifty miles.

Previous to the catastrophe at Lone Pine, there had been no earthquake in California attended by loss of life since the great shock of 1812, which destroyed the Mission of San Juan Capistrano, in Los Angeles County, and the Mission of Purissima, in Santa Barbara County, which are about 170 miles apart, and both near the coast. These Missions were built of adobes, the churches being pretty large and heavy, but not very strong structures. The shock occurred on a Sunday in September, and the first shake prostrated the church at San Juan, burying in its ruins many who were there worshiping at the time, the number of lives lost being variously stated at thirty to forty-five. A number of lives were also lost at the Purissima Mission. Two or three deaths resulted from the earthquake of October, 1868, at San Leandro and San Francisco, but they were caused by the falling of brick parapets upon persons passing in the street. There is no reason to suppose that the shock of 1812 was more severe than that of 1868. The buildings of that time were not capable of much resistance, yet had the shock occurred at any other time than Sunday, when people were assembled in church, no lives would probably have been lost. The Inyo shock was both more heavy, prolonged and extensive than that of 1812, and the locality of its origin is very different in character.

FRANCE.

Thiers Giving Receptions at the Palace of the Elysee—Penalty of Being a Communist—Gambetta.

PARIS, April 8.—President THIERS has been in consultation with Gen. FROISSARD with regard to the fortifications of France. During the recess the President has remained most of the time in Paris, and gives receptions and dinners at the palace of the Elysée. The Permanent Committee of the Assembly object to this practice as an underhand preparation for the removal of the seat of Government to Paris. The jury of painters of the annual exhibition have rejected two pictures sent in by GUSTAVE COURBET, the Communist, on the ground that the public conduct of that artist has disqualified him from competition with honorable men. The Duke DE MONTPENSIER is in this city. M. GAMBETTA is making a tour of the Provinces, and was last at Angers. There are now in the prisons of Versailles twenty-two Communists under sentence of death.

THE TICHBORNE CASE.

An Appeal from the "Claimant."

The Tichborne claimant has sent to the editor of the London Times the appeal appended:

SIR: Will you be good enough to allow me to acknowledge, through the medium of your paper, the numerous letters addressed to me and to my solicitor, suggesting that I should appeal to the public for subscriptions for my defense, and to thank all those who have promised to subscribe for their kind feeling toward me in my present painful position?

It is with the greatest reluctance that I adopt the suggestion, sure, however, as I am, that it is inspired only by a sense of justice; but, as a victim of "might against right," what other course am I to adopt? True, it may be that my friends who have already assisted will to some extent help me further, but it would be unreasonable for me to hope that, after the assistance they have already afforded me, I can fairly look to them for the large sum necessary for my defense. If a few hundreds, or even a thousand, would suffice, I might not perhaps despair; but I am charged with being a perjurer, and am also, so it is said, to be charged with being a forger, which, I suppose, means that I have used my own name of ROGER CHARLES DOUGHTY TICHBORNE. These foul and groundless charges will involve the whole question of my identity, to disprove which the Solicitor of the Government, advised by the Attorney-General (the leading counsel against me in the late trial,) has retained the Attorney-General, Mr. HAWKINS, Q. C., Sir GEORGE HONYMAN, Q. C., Sergeant PARRY, Mr. BOWEN, and Mr. ARCHIBALD against me. I am not surprised at six counsel being engaged at the expense of the country; my only wonder is that the Attorney-General, who will on the approaching trial have to represent the "Crown and Justice," did not employ the whole of the English Bar to crush me, to gratify the personal feelings he has expressed.

Fortunately for me I have many friends who will never desert me, and who have obtained for me the best legal assistance.

But how is it possible for me, utterly penniless, to avail myself of it, and to obtain justice against the purse of the Government of England. the strings of which will no doubt be freely pulled for the purpose of proving me to be a perjurer and a forger, charges which, with others, have already been made against me by the Attorney-General without proof? However, here I am, and am likely to remain, unless I can find not only four persons, worth £1,250 each, to bail me out, but four persons who will allow all their affairs to be exposed to the public for the purpose of showing that they can at any moment pay the sums for which they offer themselves.

When I have found four such friends, I am told that the advisers of the Government will then, in my case, raise an objection to the sufficiency of my own recognizance for £5,000, unless I can prove that I am worth the amount. In fact, every effort will be used to keep me here.

Cruelly persecuted as I am, there is but one course that I can see, and that is to adopt the suggestion so many have made to me—viz., to "appeal to the British public" for funds for my defense, and in doing so I appeal to every British soul who is inspired by a love of justice and fair play, and who is willing to defend the "weak against the strong."

That I am ROGER CHARLES DOUGHTY TICHBORNE I solemnly declare, and which fact I have already proved by eighty-six witnesses, and will prove again by more than two hundred, if necessary; and that I am not ARTHUR ORTON I will prove beyond the shadow of a doubt by witnesses who knew both ORTON and myself. As to the tattoo marks, at least twenty-four disinterested witnesses will prove that I, ROGER TICHBORNE, was never tattooed, but that ARTHUR ORTON was, there will be conclusive evidence forthcoming.

But, be all this as it may, true lovers of justice will, I feel satisfied, never allow me to be convicted without a fair trial, which it is impossible for me to have without counsel, solicitor and witnesses on my behalf; and I, therefore, appeal to the public for subscriptions for my defense.

Caged as I am, it is impossible for me to get a single witness without the assistance of my solicitor.

Mr. WILLIAM WARREN STREETEN, of No. 7 Old-square, Lincoln's Inn, barrister-at-law, has kindly consented to receive subscriptions, which I will thank all subscribers to pay to him, "in trust for the purpose of my defense only," otherwise the solicitors under my bankruptcy may claim it, as they did the paltry sum I had about me when I was conveyed be-

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS.

To What Great Britain is Bound by the Treaty of Washington—Correspondence to be Laid Before Congress.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The question whether Great Britain is not by her own action bound by an irrevocable precedent to submit the matter of the indirect claims to the Geneva tribunal, to determine the point of jurisdiction, will shortly have much light thrown upon it by the President's answer to the following resolution, which, introduced by Mr. UPSON, of Ohio, on Friday last, was agreed to unanimously:

Resolved, That the President be requested to furnish the House of Representatives, if not inconsistent with the public interest, copies of any correspondence which has taken place between the Government of the United States and the Government of Great Britain in regard to the presentation by the agent of Great Britain to the Commissioners appointed under the twelfth article of the Treaty of Washington of the claim of EDWARD ALFRED BARRETT, for payment of a bond issued by the so-called Confederate States of America, being one of the bonds commonly called the Cotton Loan Bonds, and also a copy of any proceedings had on said claim by, or before, said Commissioners.

Many voted for this resolution without fully understanding what its precise object was, but that is perfectly apparent to all who are aware of the fact that the Government of Great Britain under this very Treaty of Washington, and against the protest of the United States, established precisely the precedent now ought to be acted upon by this Government, in proposing, as Mr. FISH does, to let the Geneva tribunal decide for itself whether the claims for indirect damages is within its jurisdiction under the Treaty of Washington.

Rumored Prospect of an Amicable Settlement.

LONDON, April 8.—The Post, in its issue of this morning, says a rumor prevailed last night that an important telegram had been received at the Foreign Office from the Government of the United States. This dispatch, it was reported, indicated that there was a prospect that the differences between England and America growing out of the claims for consequential damages, would be settled in a manner satisfactory to both nations.

Denial of the Morning Post's Story—General Disappointment.

LONDON, April 8—Evening.—The rumor that the Foreign Office had received a dispatch from the United States which promised a solution of the question of indirect damages, is pronounced by authority to be without foundation. The report was first published in the Morning Post, and was copied and widely circulated by the evening papers. Its contradiction produces a general feeling of disappointment.

GERMANY.

Opening of Parliament—Speech from the Throne Read by Prince Bismarck.

BERLIN, April 8.—The session of the German Parliament was opened today. The Emperor was not present, and the speech from the throne was read by the Chancellor of the Empire, Prince BISMARCK. The speech enumerates the various subjects of legislation to be submitted to the Parliament for the regulation and development of the national institutions. Among them are new military and penal codes, uniform beer and malt taxes, and the ratification of the commercial treaty with Portugal, of the Consular Convention with the United States of America, and of the postal treaty with France. The increase of German commerce permits the Government to raise the estimates of the revenue, and correspondingly reduce the rates of taxation. Bills are promised to provide for the disposition of the large surplus of 1871, and of the sums received on account of the French war indemnity. Elsass and Lorraine are recovering from the shock of the late war. The foundations of German administration have been laid in those Provinces. The new University of Strasbourg opens on the 1st of May, and grants will be required to provide for the scientific establishment connected with that institution. The speech concludes as follows:

"You will share the satisfaction felt by the Federal Government at the results of the first year of the Empire, and joyfully anticipate further developments. You will also receive with satisfaction the assurance that the policy followed by that Government has proved successful in retaining and strengthening the confidence of all foreign Powers. The strength acquired by imperialization is the bulwark of the fatherland, and the guarantee of peace to Europe."

HAYTIAN NEWS.

A United States Consul in Trouble for Protecting a Political Prisoner.

PORT-AU-PRINCE, March 30, via HAVANA, April 8.—A disagreement has broken out between the local authorities of Saint Marc and the United States Consul at that port. A Haytian General, while being led to prison, took refuge in the house of the Consul. The Consul protected the General for a time, but was arrested by the authorities. The Consul was subsequently released. The matter will be settled by the higher authorities. Thirty men from Monte Christi landed from a schooner at Cape Haytien and seized the arsenal, holding it one night and a day. They were finally driven out, and several were killed. Those who escaped took to the woods.

Capture and Execution of Haytian Rebels.

BOSTON, April 8.—By letter from Cape Haytien March 18, we have the following information: During the night of 15th and 16th of March, a band of Haytian exiles, with CINNA LECONTE at their head, and recruited by some Dominicans, attacked and captured the arsenal at Cape Haytien. Their friends in town were frightened by the military precautions, and refused to join the invaders. Early on the 16th the national troops attacked and recaptured the arsenal, and put the invaders to flight, who fled to the woods. CINNA LECONTE, with seven others, were captured and shot on the 16th, and on the 17th six more were captured, five of whom shared the same fate.

THE WAR IN CUBA.

One Thousand Reinforcements Landed for the Spanish Army—Sickly Condition of Guantanamo.

HAVANA, April 8.—Advices from Santiago de Cuba to the 3d inst. have been received. A steamer from Spain had landed 1,000 reinforcements for the Spanish Army in Cuba. The sanitary condition of Guantanamo was very unsatisfactory. The American man-of-war Nantasket arrived at Santiago de Cuba on the 30th of March. The long drouth in that section had ended.

PORTO RICO.

Triumph of the Spanish Conservative Party.

HAVANA, April 8.—The elections in Porto Rico for the Cortes, resulted in a victory for the Spanish Conservative Party, which by extraordinary efforts succeeded in electing eleven out of thirteen members. The news of the result of the elections in Spain and the Colonies is received with great rejoicing by the Spaniards here.

THE POISONED GERMAN.

A Verdict Against Heggi—He is Held to Await the Action of the Grand Jury—A Queer Letter.

Coroner YOUNG yesterday concluded the inquest in the case of FREDERICK JOSEPH SIEGFRIED, whose death is alleged to have resulted from poison administered by FREDERICK HEGGI.

The following anonymous letter was received by the Coroner, yesterday, and has been placed in the hands of the District-Attorney:

SIR: If you wish to find the truth how the poisoning of F. S. took place, and who did it, how he came to and from that bar-room in No. 119 First-avenue, and particularly to and from that in Ridge-street, how he went to Newark, with whom he was there and who caused him to leave there, who went there to induce him to go to Houston-street, and how he was poisoned there and buried from there, and who was at the funeral, you must ask one R. DETWILER, a reputed lawyer, who then was living in Sixth-street, in the middle of the block, between First-avenue and Avenue A. There is a drug-store connected with the house. The wife of this lawyer is a dress-maker, well known as such, and as an accomplice in aid of the German doctor who lives in Eighth-street, between the same avenues, and who claims to be able to banish spirits or ghosts and do other supernatural things. DETWILER is known thereabouts as a drunkard and a swindler, doing, as a lawyer, whatever is wanted for money. He and his wife know all about the poisoning case. HEGGI did it, or at least in his house and under his advice it was done. The girl MILLER was only a tool for him and another man who lives near HEGGI; and on the instigation of that man, of whom HEGGI also was the tool, the whole poisoning and plundering of SIEGFRIED was done. That man went to SIEGFRIED, when he was in Newark, to induce SIEGFRIED to go to Houston-street to live with HEGGI.

That man induced the girl, MILLER, to black-mail SIEGFRIED, or if he did it not openly he did engage HEGGI to do so. SIEGFRIED's wife in Harlem had some suspicion about the killing of the man, but she had no hand in the work. She knew nothing about it until she was told he was dead. She wanted to go to the funeral, but was not allowed to do so. The man in the dark, an old sinner, is the instigator of all, and HEGGI, the girl and the lawyers are the paid tools. That man is a countryman of SIEGFRIED also, had always intimate relations with SIEGFRIED, and knew how much money he had, about $14,000 he told his lawyer who was employed to buy and sell his saloons, &c. One Mr. RICKLING, a book-binder, an Alderman, who was intimate also with all the parties above mentioned, who, I believe, lives in Stanton-street, at least his son was living there last year, who is a gold-worker or jeweler, knows of all those transactions, and was at the funeral. If you wish to find the man in the dark behind that affair, you will find him by following the smell of Limburg cheese. I mean the old gray-haired sinner, not the young people there. All the money that man and HEGGI and the girl have, and the lawyer, was taken from SIEGFRIED; belongs twice to the young SIEGFRIED, as the old SIEGFRIED stole from that son $600 or $900, his bounty, and never returned it to him. The old man had him expressly to come from Switzerland to sell him here as a soldier for that bounty, and took the bounty from him ostensibly to preserve it until his return from the war, but hoping his son would never return. On his return, instead of giving him his money he kicked him out of the house. When in No. 119 First-avenue the old man sold at any price to avoid the visits of his son. The girl, under the advice of "Limburg Cheese," black-mailed SIEGFRIED to the amount of the whole establishment in Ridge-street, and $100 cash, she saying that he (SIEGFRIED) seduced her, and was compelled to marry her. If old SIEGFRIED had been a worthy man, enough of his country people knew about his death.

ONE OF THEM.

FREDERICK SIEGFRIED, the son of the deceased, was recalled and testified that his father could not converse, read or write English; heard that Mr. SEMER made the will; witness contested the will before the Surrogate; took fourteen witnesses there, but they were not called; cannot tell why; went several times, and withdrew because counsel for HEGGI said they would settle the matter, and witness said if they would pay the money his father brought from Newark he would be satisfied; he would take part and give his mother-in-law her share, but understood afterward they meant to beat him out of it; no settlement was made; he agreed with CULVER & WRIGHT to contest the will and pay them so much if they got the money; after the funeral HEGGI treated the crowd several times; witness was with them, and he understood it was to be charged by him against the property; he had no idea then that HEGGI had poisoned his father, or he would not have drank with him; Mrs. HEGGI told him before that there was no will; he wanted to make one, but there was no time to do it; heard there was a will from a woman in Newark the same week that his father died; saw it for the first time in the Surrogate's office.

FERDINAND SOMMERS, of Newark, N. J., testified that he was a Justice of the Peace and Notary; drew the will at the request of HEGGI; HEGGI did not give the items to be put into the will, but saw the man who said he was SIEGFRIED, and he gave the items; conversed in German; only HEGGI, witness and deceased were present; HEGGI made no suggestions about the will in the presence of witness; deceased was very feeble and complained of his stomach; cannot recollect what he said, except that he made HEGGI his heir; wrote the will in the office of witness; did not know either SIEGFRIED or HEGGI; when he signed the will he had scarcely strength enough to do it; he was in a condition to make his will; it was written in English: read to him, but he did not understand it, and explained it to him in German; SIEGFRIED paid for it; he took a pocket-book from his pocket, took out a five dollar bill, handed it to HEGGI, and he gave it to witness; it was after the will was signed; he put the will in his pocket; he gave HEGGI $2,500 at the same time to deposit, and witness went with HEGGI, and saw him deposit the money in SIEGFRIED's name, in the Dime Savings Bank at Newark.

[The testimony of the witness before the Surrogate was produced; he then swore that he wrote the will in the room where deceased was, and explained it to him in German, item by item.]

WITNESS—It is two years ago, and I cannot recollect what I swore to.

Coroner YOUNG then read the will, which witness identified as the one he wrote.

Some documentary evidence was then presented, after which HEGGI, the accused, was examined in his own behalf, and testified as follows: I reside at No. 263 East Houston-street; am a machinist; came to this country in August, 1852; knew deceased for about forty years; he came here a few years before me; we were always good friends; SIEGFRIED was sick a year or two before he died; saw him once or twice a month; on July 31, 1869, he left Ridge-street and came to my house in Houston-street, but not to live; he had had a quarrel with CAROLINE MILLER; don't know where he lived; two days afterward received a letter from him asking me to come to Newark; he asked about CAROLINE, and requested me and BOSSUET to go and see and settle with her; know Dr. KREHBLE; he never attended deceased; he was sick all the time he was in Newark; went to see CAROLINE, and she wanted two or three thousand dollars to settle it; brought back two bottles of medicine that had been given to deceased in Newark and showed them to Dr. KREHBLE, and he sent him the same kind; I never gave him any medicine; went every other day to see deceased in Newark; did not know the persons he lived with; never saw them before; did not know what was to be in the will; after he made the will, he said he would do something for the little girl of his son; when the difficulty occurred with CAROLINE, he gave me a bond for $5,000; took it to him at Newark; when the will was made, SIEGFRIED did not mention the bond; his next heirs are to have the $5,000; they are his first wife and children, who are in Europe, and were never in this country; is executor to the will; have no papers directing me to give this money to them; he never said I must give it to those people; it is not true that SIEGFRIED ever said, "HEGGI is poisoning me;" never gave him any medicine not prescribed by the physician; never gave him any arsenic; heard him say he was suspicious of the physician, Dr. REYN, who was attending CAROLINE; it is not true that I ever gave him any medicine like milk; there was milk on the table, and he drank it occasionally; I settled with CAROLINE, and gave her $100 and the saloon, except clothing, which belonged to SIEGFRIED; the undertaker changed the burial place; I left the affair entirely with him; after SIEGFRIED got 3,000 francs from his mother in Europe he and deceased were always quarreling; young SIEGFRIED never accused me of poisoning his father.

The accused denied most solemnly all the accusations made against him. His wife, ROSALIE HEGGI, made a statement corroborative of that given by her husband.

The testimony of Dr. E. T. T. MARSH, who made the post-mortem examination, and Dr. HERMAN ENDERMAN, who made the chemical analysis, was then read to the jury.

This closed the testimony in the case, and Coroner YOUNG then delivered his charge to the jury, who, at its conclusion, retired, and in a short time returned with the following verdict:

"That FREDERICK J. SIEGFRIED came to his death by arsenical poisoning and there is probable cause to believe that the poison was administered by FREDERICK HEGGI."

The accused was then formally examined, and said that he was sixty years of age, a native of Switzerland, and pleaded "not guilty."

He was then committed to the Tombs to await the action of the Grand Jury.

The Cigar Manufacturers.

The German Cigar Manufacturers' Protective Association, Mr. PEETSCH presiding, met at the Steuben House yesterday, and delegated two of its members, Messrs. KUHM and PEETSCH, to proceed to Washington to see whether relief cannot be obtained from certain alleged oppressive rules and regulations to which the trade is subjected in the application of the internal revenue law.

Opening the Cooper Institute on Sundays.

The question of opening the Mercantile Library on Sundays for the benefit of the reading public, having been definitely settled in the affirmative, a committee was appointed to wait upon the trustees of the Cooper Union, in order to ascertain what course they would pursue in relation to the same subject of general interest. The trustees appointed a subcommittee, and they, to make smooth their rugged path, called on Rev. HENRY WARD BEECHER, who agreed to give his ideas in regard to the matter in a public lecture, to be delivered in the hall of the Cooper Union on Monday evening next. Mr. COOPER naively observed: "That will settle the question for the future." So it will, and as it is well known that Mr. BEECHER's ideas in relation to Sunday reading are extremely liberal, his decision can scarcely be a matter of speculation.

THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE.

Another of Gratz Nathan's Jobs—Terence Farley as a Land Operator—The Restriction on the Press to be Removed.

The Legislative Committee engaged in the work of inquiring into the course of the Judiciary, resumed their session yesterday at the Fifth-avenue Hotel. Several unimportant witnesses were examined during the day for the purpose of ratifying certain portions of the testimony already taken, but no new facts were elicited.

Col. RICHARD FRENCH was examined relative to a certain land transaction between him and the City authorities. He testified that he owned a block of ground forming a gore between Sixty-third and Sixty-fourth streets, Ninth-avenue and the Boulevard. He had refused $125,000 for the land, but the Ring took the ground from him, and he was awarded by the Commissioners only $59,000; the witness did not like the award, and made some trouble about the way he had been wronged; among other persons he saw TERENCE FARLEY, and after some consultation it was agreed that he (witness) should accept $80,000 and half the surplus, providing that the two sums should not be less than $100,000; FARLEY took him to GRATZ NATHAN, and the result was that the award was changed by the same Commissioners to $134,000, of which he got $107,000, the remaining $27,000 (half the surplus of $80,000) going to GRATZ NATHAN and TERENCE FARLEY.

The Bar Association having complained that incorrect reports of the testimony taken had appeared in the public prints, the following resolution was passed by the Committee:

Resolved, That copies of the official testimony of the Committee be given to the Committee of the Bar Association, and to the Judges and their counsel, as soon as obtained, and that the injunction of secrecy be removed therefrom on the 9th inst.; and in case all the testimony is not furnished by Saturday morning, the said injunction be then entirely removed as regards the portion of the testimony not then furnished.

The resolution was passed by the following vote: Yeas—Messrs. Prince, Tilden, Flammer and Niles. Nay—Mr. Vedder.

During the afternoon, MORRIS H. THOMPSON was examined with regard to a suit in which Judge McCUNN accepted the receiver's report, showing that nearly all the proceeds of the receivership had been swallowed up in fees. The report of the receiver was subsequently reversed and set aside by the General Term of the Supreme Court.

The Committee then adjourned until today.

The Brooklyn Republican Mass-Meeting—The Prominent Speakers.

The Grant meeting to be held at the Brooklyn Academy of Music on Wednesday night bids fair to be one of the greatest political manifestations ever made in that city. It will be essentially a popular uprising, and is not manipulated by or in the interest of any office-holders, none of whom are allowed to be connected with it in any manner, except as sympathizers with its purpose. H. B. CLAFLIN, Esq., will preside. The leading speech of the evening will be made by Rev. HENRY WARD BEECHER, who is determined to use his utmost energy in the support of President GRANT's re-election. Besides Mr. BEECHER, speeches will be delivered by Gen. WOODFORD, A. B. TENNEY, A. B. BAYLIS, Esq., and, if his health permits his presence, by S. B. CHITTENDEN, Esq., who has just returned, much improved, from a trip to Nassau. The Committee of Arrangements includes all the prominent Republicans in Brooklyn. Arrangements have been made to reserve seats for ladies until 8 o'clock.

Business at General Sessions.

Judge BEDFORD, in the Court of General Sessions, yesterday, sentenced the following prisoners: THOMAS GIBNEY, for burglary, four years to Sing Sing; DANIEL BIGLEY, felonious assault, Penitentiary one year; MICHAEL BURNS, sixteen years old, highway robbery, four years to State Prison; WM. W. BALLARD, grand larceny, one year, and CHARLES DEVLIN, same offense, three years; PATRICK DOYLE, sixteen years of age, was convicted of grand larceny, and judgment in his case was suspended. The trial of LIBBY DAVIS and EUSTACIA ST. VALERIE, confidence women, was postponed on account of the illness of their counsel.

New-York Typographical Society.

The one hundred and twenty-sixth semi-annual meeting of this institution was held on Saturday evening. The following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: President, Hiram Bessy; Vice-President, James H. Easton; Treasurer, George Parsons; Secretary, T. C. Faulkner; Librarian, John Craw; Directors, S. F. Baxter, Israel Smith, D. J. Crowley, Geo. F. Cook, Charles McDevitt and J. G. Clayton. Capt. ALBERT DE GROOT was unanimously elected an honorary member. The Society are heavy losers by the Chicago fire, the capital stock of an insurance company, in which one-third of their fund was invested, having been seriously impaired by that calamity.

SUPREME COURT—CHAMBERS—APRIL 8.

Before Judge Brady.

THE SAMUELS LIBEL SUIT.

Samuel Samuels vs. William Cullen Bryant et al.—In this case, which is a suit for libel against the Evening Post, the facts of which have already appeared in the TIMES, an application was made to postpone the inquest before the Sheriff's Jury until the return of Mr. Bryant, one of the defendants, from Mexico; also, on the ground that the present panel of jurors had already found in favor of plaintiff for $5,000, which had been set aside by the Court and a new inquisition of damages ordered. On behalf of plaintiff it was contended that Mr. Bryant was not a necessary witness; that the assessment had been set aside on the ground of irregularity and not because the amount awarded was excessive, and that the present motion was merely for purposes of delay. The Court took the papers and reserved its decision.

SUPREME COURT—CHAMBERS—APRIL 8.

Before Judge Barrett.

THE DUTIES OF ARBITRATORS.

David Hexter vs. Charles Knox.—This is an action to recoup damages for a failure to make certain repairs on leased premises within a specified time, the decision in which, defining the duties of arbitrators, is at present important, in view of the growing disposition of business men to submit their disputes to arbitration rather than await the usual course of legal proceedings. The facts in the case show that during last Summer defendant agreed to complete certain alterations on premises known as the Prescott House, of which plaintiff was lessee and defendant owner, which alterations were not completed within the specified time. An injunction was issued restraining the collection of rents from plaintiff pending the litigation; and without awaiting trial, the parties agreed to submit their disputes to the decision of three arbitrators. The case now comes before the Court on a motion to confirm the arbitrators' award, which motion is opposed on the ground that the arbitrators have not passed on all the questions submitted to them. Judge BARRETT decided the award to be bad for defective execution, and that it must be set aside.

A. J. Vanderpoel for plaintiff; T. C. T. Buckley for defendant.

SUPREME COURT—GENERAL TERM—APRIL 8.

Before Presiding Justice Ingraham and Judges Barnard and Cardozo.

APPOINTMENT OF EXAMINING COMMITTEE.

The Court has made an order appointing committees on qualifications and character of applicants for admission to the Bar at the present term. The Committee on Qualifications is composed as follows: H. C. Van Vorst, W. J. McCaffrey, Roswell D. Hatch. The members of the Committee on Character are Julien Davies, Rufus F. Andrews and Ellery E. Anderson.

SUPERIOR COURT—TRIAL TERM—PART I.—APRIL 8.

Before Judge Monell.

DISMISSAL OF "BLACK FRIDAY" SUITS.

In the cases of Charles C. Howard vs. Henry N. Smith, and Charles C. Howard vs. Henry N. Smith, Jay Gould and others, growing out of the Wall-street operations of "Black Friday," the Court yesterday granted a motion to dismiss the complaints by default.

SUPERIOR COURT—TRIAL TERM—PART II.—APRIL 8.

Before Judge Curtis and a Jury.

INJURED BY FALLING INTO A CELLAR EXCAVATION.

Julius Schwensinsky vs. John H. Masterson.—This was an action to recover $5,000 damages, alleged to have been sustained by falling into a cellar excavation, made by defendant. It appeared that in the Fall of 1869, when the large factory at the junction of Chrystie and Houston streets was being erected, the plaintiff, who is a tailor by trade, while passing in front of the building at night, fell into the excavation, thereby breaking his leg and incapacitating him for work during a period of nearly seven months. The defense was that plaintiff fell not into that portion of the excavation inclosed in the bounds of the public walk, but into that portion within the limits of the building; that in either case it was the result of the plaintiff's own carelessness, he having crossed the protection fence which had been placed around the excavation, and thereby caused the injury. The case is still on trial.

M. E. Goodhart for plaintiff; Mr. Peckham for defendant.

MONDAY, April 8—P. M.

There is less excitement in Wall-street and more strength in the Stock Market today than were foreshadowed by the events at the close of last week and the reduced condition of the Bank movement. The Clearing-house Association took general action against any future attempts to lock up Greenbacks, or to violate the comity between the Banks, such as transpired at the Tenth National on Friday last. There was a strong feeling in the direction of expelling the offending Bank, without warning, and fifteen of the Banks voted to do so. But there seemed to be technical reasons against proceeding to this extreme, which induced the majority not to vote expulsion at present. The House of Representatives at Washington today instructed the Banking and Currency Committee to investigate the outrage of last week, and this will doubtless be done at once. Meanwhile the effects of the lock-up in connection with the immediate condition of the City Bank movement, are again felt today on the Money market, and commissions of ⅛@¼ per cent. to carry over Stocks until to-morrow were quite current on Broad-street. The influence of this stringent market is decidedly bad upon the mercantile demand for Money, and the rates on paper not accommodated at Bank are dearer than usual of late.

The strong hold of the Bull element on the Stock Exchange was again illustrated in prices for the Railroads and Western Telegraph and Pacific Mail, which surprised the Street, while Money was being loaned at such extravagant commissions. The early sales seemed to presage a heavy and depressed market, and an anxious purpose on the part of some of the holders to realize all they could upon their Cash Stocks by way of relief to their Bank accounts. But this feeling did not continue beyond the meeting of the First Board, when prices began to recover, and were fairly sustained throughout the forenoon, and up to the adjournment of the Second Board. The final closing at 5 o'clock is noted below as compared with the last figures of Saturday afternoon.

The bearish party in Stocks have the credit of entering the Gold Room as Bulls in Gold, and the sales went up from 110⅛ to 110⅝ ₱ cent., through returning to 110⅜ ₱ cent. at the close of business. The advance in Gold further checked all freedom in Bills on London, for cash, and the rates closed as irregular as last week—109 to 109½ ₱ cent. The Public Funds were also dull at the Exchange Board, though we hear of a fair business done at the counters of some of the prominent dealers. The changes in rates from Saturday are quite inconsiderable. South Carolina Bonds fell to 37@37½ ₱ Cent., and the New Southern Bonds and the Railway Mortgages were neglected.

Important Enterprise.

The books for subscription to the stock of the United States National Bank open on the 10th inst. Advices from various parts of the country indicate that the stock will probably be speedily taken up and distributed in hands throughout various sections.

Such an organization seems certain to attract immediate large deposits from banks throughout the country. Three of the City banks at present established command deposits in the aggregate exceeding $50,000,000. It is believed that the new bank, in the directorship of which is a representation of the constituency which provides the bulk of its business, must attract a large proportion of depositors who now bank elsewhere in this centre.

The friends of the enterprise expect that a large portion of the stock will be taken by the national banks in their corporate capacity, nothing in the Currency act forbidding such disposition of their funds, which, indeed, would seem to be an advantageous one, if the new bank like others in this locality proves able to pay ten per cent. to its shareholders. The return thus realized would be in itself sufficient inducement to many country institutions as an investment, irrespective of subordinate advantages, to insure from accommodations to be expected in the course of business.

BANKING AND FINANCIAL.

APRIL
INVESTMENTS

To those who have funds to invest, and to those who wish to increase their income from funds already invested in other securities, we recommend Northern Pacific Seven-thirties. Bearing Seven and Three-tenths (7 3-10) gold interest, and secured by a First Mortgage on both the Road and a Land Grant of great extent and value, they combine unusual Profitableness with unquestionable Security.

The proceeds of all sales of Land are required to be devoted by the Trustees of the bondholders as a Sinking Fund to the purchase and cancellation of the first mortgage bonds, or temporarily to the payment of interest thereon, if necessary. This provision will make the Railroad Company itself a large purchaser of its own securities in the open market after the Road is completed and until the Bonds mature, or are all bought in.

The Northern Pacific Railroad Company will, during the present month of April, offer for sale and settlement about Two Million Acres of its Lands in Minnesota, and many thousand acres are already taken and applied for. Thus the immense landed estate of the Company begins at once to be available.

All marketable stocks and bonds will be received (by express or otherwise) at current prices in exchange for Northern Pacific Seven-thirties without expense to the investor. Pamphlets and full information will be furnished on application.

MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT.

Meeting of Both Boards of Aldermen and of the Supervisors—Important Action.

The Board met at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, JOHN COCHRANE in the chair.

Alderman WILDER'S motion that the Commissioner of Public Works be requested to communicate to the Board the particulars of the contract for supplying Croton water to the steam-ships in the harbor, and the amount of revenue derived therefrom, was agreed to.

Alderman CONOVER, as Chairman of the Joint Committee on Railroads, submitted in connection with a report a resolution

Condemning the bill reported favorably by a majority of the Committee on Railroads of the Assembly, (and now before it for its action,) to regulate the running of cars over the Fourth-avenue in this City, as not meeting the requirements necessary for the proper protection of the lives of the citizens, or the demands of the property-owners on or in the vicinity of the line of said avenue, and as being objectionable to the wishes of the citizens at large.

The report went to state further:

No better means can be devised for furnishing "rapid transit" than by the utilization of the Fourth-avenue, north of Forty-second-street, for that purpose; and that, in the opinion of this Committee, all plans intended to secure the advantages of rapid transit from the lower part of the City to the upper should be so arranged as to be run in connection with the road so to be constructed on the Fourth-avenue, and that the whole of said Fourth-avenue should be appropriated and taken for that purpose; and further that the cost of the construction of the roadways or tunnels north of Forty-second-street be determined and equitably imposed upon the New-York and Harlem Railroad Company, the City at large and the owners of property directly benefited by the improvement, by a commission of three persons, to be appointed by the Legislature or the Governor. That after due consideration of the various plans submitted to the Joint Committee on Railroads of the Common Council of the City of New-York, for the purpose of facilitating rapid transit from one part of the City to the other, we do recommend to the favorable consideration of the Legislature the plan submitted by I. N. HENRY NOTT as a proper basis by which the problem of "rapid transit" may be satisfactorily solved.

On motion of Alderman COMAN, the report was accepted, and the resolution laid over until the next meeting.

A communication from the Board of Health was read in reference to street-cleaning. It was referred to the Committee on Streets to report thereon.

The Clerk read the report of the Controller for the quarter ending March 31, 1872. It was ordered to be printed in document form. On motion of Alderman CONOVER, the Controller was requested to furnish a report of the income and expenditure of the City and County of New-York for the year 1870.

Alderman VAN SCHAIK moved:

That a joint Committee of the Common Council be appointed to memorialize the Legislature, to authorize the people of this City to elect delegates to a Convention to be held at a future day, for the purpose of opposing amendments to the charter of this City, or to draw up a new charter, which charter or amendments shall, if approved by the qualified voters of the City at the next general election, be submitted to the Legislature.

Alderman MCLAREN objected to the consideration of the motion, as it was out of the general order of business. The motion was, thereupon, withdrawn. Subsequently Alderman CONOVER moved a suspension of standing orders, which was agreed to. He then presented the motion offered by Alderman VAN SCHAICK, and it was adopted.

A special meeting of the Board of Supervisors was held after the adjournment of the Board of Aldermen. A communication was read from the Controller stating that a balance of $13,874 99, of the appropriation for the Board, remained unused. It was laid on the file.

The Board adjourned after transacting some routine business.

Meeting of the Board of Assistant Aldermen.

The Board of Assistant Aldermen met yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, OTIS T. HALL, President, in the chair.

Assistant Alderman GEIS presented an ordinance

Prohibiting the carriage of butcher's offal, refuse, bones, decayed meat and other such disagreeable articles through the streets of the city, except between the hours of 5 o'clock in the afternoon and 7 o'clock in the morning, under a penalty of $50 for each and every offense.

It was referred to the Committee on Public Health.

Assistant Alderman SIMONSON, Chairman of the Committee on Contested Seats, to whom was referred the petition of HENRY WISSER to be awarded the seat in the Board for Fifth Assembly District, now occupied by JOSEPH ROBINSON, reported

That, in the opinion of the Committee, the claims made for alteration of the vote of the said district have not been established by competent authority, and we, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

That the claim of HENRY J. WISSER to a seat in this Board as member of the Fifth Assembly District not having been established, is hereby dismissed and denied, and that ISAAC ROBINSON is hereby adjudged and declared duly elected and qualified as member for and from the said district.

The report was received and the resolution adopted. Those voting in the affirmative were Messrs. Foley, Stacom, O'Brien, Galvin, Healy, Hartt, Costelloe, Conor, Littlefield, Simonson, Cuminsky, McDonald, Schwartz, and the President—14. Negative—Messrs. Kraus, Coddington, Strack, Pinckney, Wade and Geis—6.

By unanimous consent Assistant Alderman CONOR introduced a resolution protesting against the passage by the Assembly of the bill now before it in relation to the relief of Fourth-avenue, and also against the passage of any bill in relation thereto not recommended by the Common Council. The resolution was laid on the table. The Board then adjourned.

The General Jail Delivery—The Argument Adjourned.

The argument which it was intended should take place in Supreme Court, Chambers, yesterday, before Judge BRADY, was postponed until to-morrow, owing to the fact that neither counsel had been able to secure a certified copy of the decision of the Court of Appeals, by which the Court could be guided in determining the application for the prisoners' discharge. Mr. HENRY WEHLE called attention to the case of one of the prisoners named ERNST, whom he represented as counsel, and who was tried before a Court constituted by two Judges, Messrs. DOWLING and SHANDLEY.

Judge BRADY asked if the decision was not to the effect that it was a conviction before a single Judge which was illegal?

Mr. WEHLE replied that, having argued the Huber case before the Court of Appeals, he there distinctly contended that the Court of Special Sessions, if not organized in conformity with the provisions of the act of 1870, it was illegally organized and without jurisdiction, whether organized with one Judge or two Judges, and that the decision went to that extent.

Mr. WILLIAM F. HOWE concurred with Mr. WEHLE as to his interpretation of the decision, and said that, as published in one of the daily papers, it went to the extent claimed.

Judge BRADY said, notwithstanding his great respect for the newspapers, he did not feel justified in a matter of this kind to accept the decision of the Court of Appeals, as published, as being official. In order, therefore, to afford an opportunity to counsel to procure an officially certified copy of the decision, he would adjourn the argument until the 10th inst. It was, therefore, mutually understood by counsel for the prisoners and people that all the cases, including 143 in which writs were issued yesterday, should stand adjourned until to-morrow.

Methodist Doctrinal Questions.

The subject of discussion at the meeting of the Methodist preachers yesterday was: "Does the Methodist Church act wisely in requiring assent of members in their admission to doctrinal questions?" Rev. JOHN DICKINSON said that in his opinion, the present articles, twenty-five in number, and selected from the thirty-nine of the English Church, should be stricken out of the Methodist service, as young members were not prepared to give their assent to the articles, without much consideration. Articles were not introduced into the Methodist Church until 1864, and he said they had never done the Church any good.

Addresses were also delivered by Dr. TRUE and Dr. TAYLOR on the subject, after which the meeting adjourned.

PUBLIC HEALTH PROMOTED! AGRICULTURE BENEFITED!!

GOUX'S

PATENT ABSORBENT CLOSET AND URINAL.

"The Goux system possesses all the advantages of the dry-earth system without its disadvantages; it is economical, deodorizing and self-acting. The whole refuse of every house, as excreta, liquid or solid, ashes and sweepings are disposed of and turned to account; and it is applicable in individual cases, dwellings, and in large communities. The alterations to the ordinary closets, to adapt them to the dry system, are less costly in the Goux process than in any other, and it is applicable to the best description of houses, as well as to the dwellings of the poor."—Scientific American, Jan. 1, 1872.

DAILY, WEEKLY AND SEMI-WEEKLY.

This journal is now thoroughly identified with the greatest political necessity of the hour—uncompromising warfare against all forms of corruption, whether in national or local government. For years past the TIMES has been exposing the demoralizing schemes of self-interested politicians, and its recent warfare upon the Tammany Democrats has been received with universal approval. It has adhered to the pledge given in its original prospectus, more than twenty years ago, that the public should be truly represented, and their interests faithfully guarded through its columns. Its record has been pure and honorable, and the highest aim of its proprietors is to render it more and more worthy of its past history, and of the confidence which the public repose in it. Two out of three of the original proprietors still direct its policy, and guide it on all public questions. They purpose that the TIMES shall continue to keep clear of all narrow and unworthy influences and cliques, and aim to represent the great body of the public, as distinguished from personal factions. It occupies a perfectly independent position, and is free to speak the truth on all subjects and about all men. Its greatly increased circulation throughout the country adds to its power and influence. It will continue to be a faithful exponent of Republican principles, and advocate with untiring energy every cause which tends to further the welfare of the people.

A very full summary of news, and many general articles of great interest, are published in the Semi-weekly editions; and in the Weekly edition there is an unabridged report of the proceedings at the Farmers' Club, an excellent summary of political information, and a great variety of matter suitable for family reading.

The NEW-YORK TIMES is pre-eminently a family paper, all objectionable advertisements being rigidly excluded; and it has a constantly increasing circulation among the most respectable classes of the community.

Notice.

We cannot notice anonymous communications. In all cases we require the writer's name and address, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. We cannot under any circumstances return rejected communications, nor can we undertake to preserve manuscripts.

☞ Advertisements for the WEEKLY TIMES must be handed in before 10 o'clock this evening.

To Advertisers.

☞ For the accommodation of up-town residents, advertisements for insertion in the TIMES will be received at No. 54 West 32d-st., junction of Broadway and 6th-av.; No. 308 West 23d-st., opposite Grand Opera-house, and No. 1,241 Broadway, between 30th and 31st sts., at same rates as are charged at office of publication.

☞ The NEW-YORK TIMES has opened a branch office in Brooklyn at No. 44 Court-st opposite the City Hall, where advertisements will be received until 5 P. M.

☞ Throughout the Presidential canvass, we shall publish fuller reports of meetings and conventions in each State than any other New-York journal. The letters and dispatches we received from New-Hampshire and Connecticut afford examples of the thorough and impartial manner in which our correspondents will perform their work. Very full dispatches will be forwarded by telegraph, supplemented by careful letters. Our desire is to place before the public the latest and most trustworthy information, and we have made ample arrangements for that purpose.

As a further example of the thoroughness with which this is being done, we refer to our returns from the Connecticut election, which were earlier, more complete, and more accurate than those of any other New-York paper.

Of the "hundred days" forming the regular session of the Legislature, but two days now remain. Is it unreasonable to say that the public have no great reason to be satisfied with the way in which the time has been spent? When about a month of the session had passed away, we begged members to give their attention to practical business. We were then told that we were "impatient"—and so it has been ever since. The lobbyists have had everything their own way at Albany—A. D. BARBER & Co. have never done a much better business. We are now in the second week of April, with no arrangements made for the election of new officers, no new charter, not a single thing done which the people expected to be done when the Legislature met. Yet we are still told that if we say anything about it we shall "do harm." Suppose the people say something about it? After all, it is their business, and perhaps the "politicians" would scarcely presume to tell them that it was like their impudence to interfere in the affair. If somebody does not wake up, we shall find that Reform has come to a sudden end.

On the 1st of March, 1869, the total amount of yearly interest on the debt of the United States was over one hundred and twenty-six millions, ($126,389,550.) Now it is less than one hundred and six millions ($105,904,998.) The annual saving to the people of the country, therefore, by the payment of the debt secured by the present Administration, is more than twenty millions of dollars ($20,484,552.) Do the people think they will fare any better at the hands of the Democratic Party, either acting in their own name, or under the disguise of the Cincinnati Party?

An evening paper is responsible for a very circumstantial confirmation of the cable dispatch, announcing that a satisfactory basis for the settlement of the dispute growing out of the Treaty of Washington, had been arrived at. The reported mode of reconciling the position of the two Governments, receives, as will be seen, no confirmation in our Washington dispatches. It is somewhat improbable that our Cabinet has, as yet, taken any definite action whatever on the subject.

"Hunger supplies sweet sauce," says the old proverb, and it is on this principle, we presume, that we are to account for the apparent satisfaction with which the papers that support the Cincinnati Convention hail the New-York accessions. They assure us that HORACE GREELEY has a "larger following" than any single politician in the country, and that he, in fact represents the "Fenton Wing" of the New-York Republicans. Courtesy to guests requires a gentle greeting to the great New-Yorker, no doubt, but we advise our Cincinnati friends not to put too much confidence in Mr. GREELEY's views of his "following." When a man runs behind his ticket almost uniformly, it would seem that he was better calculated to drive men out of the party than to lead them out. Moreover, we should say that Mr. FENTON would dispute the claim to represent the "Fenton wing" of New-York Republicans, and Mr. FENTON does not openly espouse the Cincinnati movement.

The meeting to be held at Brevoort Hall to-night, will consider a subject of the highest importance to all classes of citizens. "What should be done to compel the Harlem Railroad Company to sink their tracks and arch them over from Forty-second-street running north," is a question which not only interests up-town residents and property-owners, but has a direct bearing on the pocket of every tax-payer. Mr. WHITBECK's bill as introduced into the Legislature, provided for the payment of one-half the expense of sinking and covering these tracks by the City. The bill as reported from the Committee on Railroads, has eliminated all the salutary provisions of the original measure, but has scrupulously maintained the clause about the half payment. In other words, the City is to be called on to assist a corporation which is immensely rich and whose business is of the most profitable kind, to make certain alterations in their track, which will be very convenient for them, and very injurious to the interests of the City. Both Mr. VANDERBILT and the Legislature must be made to understand that the City will not, willingly, pay a cent toward any scheme which stops short of restoring Fourth-avenue to public use. If to-night's meeting fails to give forth a very certain sound in regard to the contemplated outrage, it will be too late either to protest or complain, after the plan of the majority of the Railroad Committee has been accepted. The question comes up as the special order before the Assembly to-morrow, and the action taken on the matter, cannot, therefore, be too prompt or decided.

The full text of the Soldiers' Homestead bill will be found in another column, and it is a document which will interest many thousands of our readers. Under its provisions every person who served in the army or navy ninety days, and has since remained loyal, is entitled to a quarter section of land. This is understood to include the militia who were mustered into the service in 1862-3, and are known as the "three months' men." The claimant may enter on the land by an agent, and the agent may occupy the land, the period of his occupancy being reckoned in the five years' residence required. This term is further reduced by the period of actual service, or in the case of disabled or wounded men, by the term of enlistment. Thus, a man whose service extended over two years will require but three years' residence, either by himself or agent; and a man who enlisted for three years, and was discharged wounded, will require but two years; but at least one year's residence will be necessary in any case, and the claimant must, before the time closes, enter upon the land in person and commence settlement.

To-morrow the Republican State Convention of Pennsylvania meets at Harrisburg for the nomination of candidates for most of the State offices, and for the election of delegates to the National Convention. From our correspondent on the spot our readers receive this morning a full account of the situation. It will be seen that the feeling of confidence is strong, and that the sentiment in favor of the renomination of President GRANT is decided. The Cincinnati bolters will receive but small comfort from the Republicans of Pennsylvania.

The Republican Party and Gen. Grant.

One of the trumpeters of the little faction of grumble and fuss that is about to hold a Convention at Cincinnati, takes Vice-President COLFAX to task for advocating the renomination of Gen. GRANT on the ground that the ascendency of the Republican Party cannot be safely or wisely surrendered. That such a surrender would be either wise or safe is, of course, not openly proclaimed by any man who professes to be a Republican; but the ground is taken that because Gen. GRANT, by his policy, and by his distribution of patronage, (and chiefly, it would seem, by the latter,) has offended this faction, therefore they will withdraw from the ranks of the party on his renomination. "And then," they cry out, "where will the Republican Party be?" The obvious answer to this question is—just where the Republican Party was before most of these men were heard of; just where it would be if all of them were to disappear from the face of the earth.

The great party which has controlled the affairs of this country for the last twelve years does not exist upon the sufferance of the leaders of a small minority of discontented members. If the Republican Party can be destroyed or must collapse because of the defection of certain persons, although some of them may have done it good and well-remembered service in days gone by, perhaps it might better be allowed to go to pieces; for it might well be doubted whether such a party had strength and vitality enough to be safely intrusted with so grave and exacting a task as the shaping of the public policy of a great nation for four important years. But, if such were the measure of its strength and its coherence, its position would not be what it is at present. No party ever attained a commanding position in any country at any time that held such a shaky lease of life. Men are very apt to over-rate their importance to the world, even to their own little world. The best of them may be removed from it, or they may remove themselves, and it is marvelous how things will go on pretty much as they went before.

The "soreheads" insist not only upon having their own way, but, like the obstinate old fool in the play, upon their own way of having their own way. They will assert, and require that all the world, including their fellow-Republicans, shall believe that the President is insisting on his renomination, and that thus he is the chief disorganizer of his party. Of all political pretenses there never was one more impudent than this. Whoever knows anything of Gen. GRANT knows that the desire of office and political influence is no part of his character. The Presidency sought him, not he it. That is as well and as widely known as that the sun rose this morning. He could not at first be persuaded to listen to proposals that he should be nominated; and he yielded only because it was made clear to him that the good of the whole country required from him the sacrifice of his feelings and his interest. After he was nominated he was, indeed, desirous of election, and since his inauguration he has also shown a strong interest in the success of his Administration; but these are virtues, not faults in his character. Eight years ago a great many men found out that he put his heart into whatever he undertook, and that, once committed to a course, he pursued it with invincible determination. But if these Cincinnati factionists think that it is he that insists upon his renomination, they are destined to an eye-opening that will astonish them. The President doubtless desires the success of the Republican Party; but when he resigned his position as General of the army, he sacrificed his own feelings from a sense of duty. His present assailants are well aware of that fact.

The renomination of Gen. GRANT is insisted upon, not by him, but by at least the great majority of those who first nominated and then elected him. They now wish his renomination, because they believe that although all his acts have not met with the unqualified approval of all his supporters, (no man that ever sat in the President's chair has done that, not even the first, and best and greatest,) yet he has administered the affairs of his high office faithfully, and on the whole wisely and well. This reason is of a positive sort; but in addition to it there is another of political prudence hardly less strenuous. It is this: that with the renomination of Gen. GRANT, the success of the Republican Party seems, at present, certain, so absolutely certain that in that case the Democrats are inclined to let the canvass go by default; whereas if Gen. GRANT is not renominated, the present prospect is that the Democratic Party will lift its head again; that old party lines, such as they were before the war, will be sharply redrawn; that many Democrats who did vote for GRANT, and who would vote for him again, but for no extreme Republican politician, will fall away, and that so, indeed, the Vice-President's fear might come to pass, and the ascendency of the Republican Party would indeed be surrendered. The existence and the coherence of the Republican Party does not, as we have said, depend upon one man or one set of men. But its success in any particular canvass, more than that of any other party, does depend upon the man whom it nominates. For its voters do not go to the polls by platoons, and vote at the word of command; its ranks have been recruited from the thinking, independent men of all parties. Let us not be told that these are the men who are going to Cincinnati to grumble and fuss. Who they are we all know. If the term political hacks could be applied to any men whose names have come into notice in the Republican Party, it would belong to them. And whom could they nominate that would command such a support as Gen. GRANT will command? Whom could the whole Republican Party itself nominate with such prospect of success? Let us consider that question first, and it will bear thinking of a little while. If the Republican Party do not renominate Gen. GRANT, whom can it nominate, not as a reasonably fit man for the office, but as one who is both reasonably fit and whose election is as nearly sure as any future human event can be?

A Charter Convention.

The Board of Aldermen has adopted a resolution, authorizing a Joint Committee of the Common Council to memorialize the Legislature to allow the citizens to elect delegates to a Convention, for the purpose of proposing amendments to the City charter, or of framing a new charter, either of which are to be submitted to the people at the next general election, and, if approved of, recommended to the Legislature. A similar plan was mooted after the great Reform victory of November last, but met with very little favor from any class of citizens. The great majority of our respectable voters were perfectly prepared to intrust this delicate and difficult task to the Committee of Seventy. Reform Associations all over the City have, without exception, approved of their work; and yet the State Senate has insisted on so defacing and distorting this measure that its original efficacy has been lost, and its authors, and the Reformers whom they represent, have unanimously disowned it. If the majority of the Legislature record it as their deliberate opinion that New-York, as represented by the Committee of Seventy, is not the best judge of its own wants, we can find no reason to warrant the supposition that they would be better prepared to accept the work of New-York as represented by a Charter Convention. It may seem very desirable to the Board of Aldermen to gain time for the purpose of framing a charter which would lengthen their tenure of office. To the vast majority of our citizens, it is of the highest importance that the Legislature should settle the matter now. The voters of New-York have spoken as unequivocally on the subject as they are ever likely to speak, and the Legislature cannot shift one jot of the responsibility of disregarding the popular voice, by listening to the proposal of any such makeshift as a Charter Convention.

We do not like to regard even the possibility of another year of desultory discussion over a city charter. If such a thing should unhappily become necessary, the Committee of Seventy owe it to themselves and to the people who delegated to their hands the prosecution of the struggle for reform, to retain their organization and their purpose intact. At the very opening of the next session of the Legislature, the new charter, with such amendments as further experience may suggest, must be presented to the Assembly whose New-York members at least, have, meanwhile, been elected on a platform of which the Charter formed one of the planks. Local Senators who have opposed the greatest product of the reform movement, must also be treated to a little plain-speaking from their constituents, similar to that administered to Senator TIEMANN. The Reformers of New-York must act in the interval on O'CONNELL's great watchword, "Agitate, agitate, agitate!" and the battle of thorough City reorganization and impartial City representation must be fought out till it culminates in victory. We need hardly say that we earnestly hope that such a continuance of the struggle may, even yet, by the agreement of the Conference Committee of the Legislature, be rendered unnecessary.

The Erie Ring.

It is but simple justice to the Tribune to say that if, by any chance, it strikes a blow at the corruptionists of the New-York Rings, it is ready to make prompt and ample apology to them. It attacked MILLER, and in a few days took it all back again. On Saturday excess of zeal on the part of some misguided subordinate, happily accompanied by a lapse in editorial supervision, produced a strong article in the Tribune rejoicing over Gen. BARLOW's suit against the old Erie directors, and hitting a series of double blows at JAY GOULD and PETER B. SWEENY. They were denounced as the dei ex machinâ of the Erie and Tammany Rings. As for the first, he was "a miser," to whom the unfortunate FISK was but the convenient "mask." As for the second, he was "a guilty getter of power," to whom TWEED served but as "a shield." "Both had fallen through the lack of shrewdness, or the recklessness of their chief tools," though whether it was folly or carelessness which caused FISK to allow himself to be the victim of STOKES' bullet was not intimated. "Each was scheming to defend himself and to regain lost power," and the community were warned with refreshing emphasis, quite foreign to the journal in question when speaking of these men, that they were alike "desperate in defeat and more dangerous than ever."

Mr. GREELEY appears to have spent Saturday, Sunday and Monday in turning over this remarkable article in "what he is pleased to call his mind," and on yesterday morning he announced the result to the public. By that time the suit to recover the stolen property of the Erie shareholders assumed an entirely different character in his eyes. It had been stated that it was brought with the coöperation of the new Board, but Mr. GREELEY proceeded to exonerate them from what he evidently thought was a disreputable imputation. "On the contrary," he declares, "they are carefully but vigorously putting the affairs of the road in the best condition," a labor which he seems to regard as inconsistent with any legal pursuit of their rascally predecessors. In this labor they were receiving valuable assistance from Mr. JAY GOULD. Our own opinion is that Mr. JAY GOULD could give much more valuable assistance to the Attorney-General in his very praiseworthy undertaking, if he chose to do so, than to the directors in their engrossing effort to put the road in good condition. Mr. GREELEY thinks he was right to prefer the safer business, and he is "not inclined to approve, except upon the clearest information, any interference with it." The suit of Gen. BARLOW, if resolutely pressed, and especially if aided by the information in the possession of the new Board, would, of course, prove a very serious "interference" with GOULD's pleasant and profitable connection with that body. It will not be Mr. GREELEY's fault if anything so unfortunate occurs.

Mr. GREELEY further declares that he "ought to add" that PETER B. SWEENY has not been connected with the Erie Road for several years, and "is nowise responsible for its more recent mismanagement." Mr. SWEENY ought now to be satisfied. The unkind epithets of Saturday are as far atoned for by the amende of Tuesday as could be expected in an "independent journal." If the former admirers of Mr. GREELEY are puzzled by this tenderness for the Democratic ring-master, we think we can help them to an explanation. Mr. GREELEY is committed to the Cincinnati Convention, where he expects to secure a nomination which will depend for its value on the co-operation of Democrats. He cannot, therefore, afford to offend the great Tammany wire-puller, nor risk the loss of the aid of his "towering spirit" in the coming contest. Mr. SWEENY, as the Tribune very properly remarked on Saturday, is "desperate in defeat, and more dangerous than ever." He can still control many thousand legal votes, and many more illegal ones, and votes are what Mr. GREELEY just now would do anything to secure.

Mexican Outrages.

The bitter complaints of the Texan Press respecting Mexican depredations in the country between the Nueces and the Rio Grande, have been supported by an official affirmation that shows the subject to be one of considerable gravity. Whatever the technical objections to the indictment presented by the Grand Jury to the United States Court for the Eastern District of Texas, the facts recited demand and should receive immediate attention. There are reasons why our Government should be sedulous to avoid needless complications with Mexico at this time; but there can be no reasons strong enough to warrant us in standing tamely by while the territory of the United States is invaded and ravaged, and the lives of its citizens wantonly sacrificed.

The report of the Grand Jury, which we published on Monday, sets forth that sixty thousand square miles of Texan soil have been pillaged by armed bands of Mexicans coming from beyond the Rio Grande; that since the close of our civil war in 1865, 420,000 head of cattle, valued at over six millions of dollars, have been stolen and driven across the frontier into Mexico; that, as incidents of these raids, a number of murders had been committed—those of Inspectors DUPONT, HAMMOND, PHELPS, and MCLAUGHLIN, all not only citizens, but officials of the United States, being specially instanced; and that, in consequence of these and many other thefts and outrages, the territory named is in a state of chronic apprehension and decay, to the ruin of business and the paralysis of all forms of industrial development. The local Press sustains these allegations by numerous examples. The San Antonio Herald declares that between Feb. 15 and 29 four large droves of stolen beeves were crossed into Mexico between the Florida and Santa Maria Ranches. These are on the Rio Grande, some thirty miles above Brownsville. The droves in question numbered over two thousand head; and, as they are worth twenty dollars apiece, it follows that a loss of forty thousand dollars was inflicted on our people by this single "operation." The thieves do not, however, appear to have realized so large a sum for themselves, whatever the profit of those who direct and act in concert with them on Mexican soil; for it is reported that on the 6th of March Señor CARDENAS, the Alcalde of Matamoras, bought six hundred American beeves for three dollars a head, the rest having been driven, as is supposed, into the camp of Gen. CORTINA.

The marauders are asserted to be almost exclusively Mexican soldiers; and it is asserted, but not proved, that they act by permission, if not by the direct orders, of Gen. CORTINA. This officer is the senior Mexican commander on the line of the Rio Grande, and serves, of course, the Juarez Government. The Americans of the neighborhood are persuaded of his inveterate hostility to this country, and aver that nothing will put a stop to the deeds complained of except a military occupation, temporary or other, of the entire region. In the meantime, Hon. JOHN HANCOCK is besieged with letters from his constituents urging him to invoke the protection of Congress; and Mr. BROOKS introduces his bill for extending a Protectorate over the whole of Mexico. The expediency of such a step we will not at present discuss. It is the remedy urged so warmly by Gen. SAM. HOUSTON as the sole cure for just such evils as those now complained of on the Rio Grande; and it may be that experienced veteran was right. It is moreover the wish of Texans themselves—so far as we can gather from their Press—as discriminated from annexation. But, whether either project be put in practice in the future or not, our citizens have certainly a right to look for present protection; and, pending the consideration of Mr. HANCOCK's proposal for a commission, the force of cavalry on the line of the Rio Grande should be at once increased, and other needful protective measures instantly devised.

It is evident that the difficulties of the situation are seriously augmented by the fact that so large a part of the population of the invaded section is of Mexican birth or origin. Between the Lower Rio Grande and what is known as King's Ranch, nine-tenths of the inhabitants are of that race. It is natural that some sympathy should exist between these persons and their lawless countrymen, and that if they do not openly aid and abet, they at least do not oppose or inform against them. The universal statement of the rancheros is that the thieves always threaten them with death should they give information; and the universal fact seems to be that it is Americans who are despoiled, and that very little is ever heard of what is going on until the plunder is safely over the border. The current excuse of Mexicans on either side of the Rio Grande is that the Nueces River is the northern boundary of the State of Tamaulipas, and that, consequently, the country invaded belongs to Mexico. Of course this theory conveniently leaves out of account the Treaty of 1836, and that of Guadaloupe Hidalgo; but still it may as conveniently be used in the way of color or palliation as a like doctrine by the old Scottish borderers. The difficulties of which the wild raids of these latter worthies formed only a part were never really and finally settled until the people on both sides the disputed line obeyed a common Government; and to many the analogy has undoubted attractions. But whether the acquisition of Mexico, or the extension of a Protectorate over Mexico, be desirable or not—whether either act would constitute an element of weakness or of strength—it will not answer to let these complaints from the Rio Grande pass unheeded; they should be answered at once, in a way to assure the protection of American citizens, and to uphold the dignity of the Government.

Greeley and Jeff. Davis.

Mr. GREELEY appears to be anxious that his exploits during his Southern tour should now be forgotten, and nothing angers him more than any mention of his obsequiousness to the secession chief and to the adherents of the Lost Cause. Yesterday, having undoubtedly "worked himself up on toast and water," after the manner of the late Mrs. Tony Weller, he broke out in a violent tirade against the TIMES, and denied, with much wealth of vituperation, that he ever "went anywhere to shake hands with JEFF. DAVIS," at the same time characterizing the very straightforward and explicit statement of the TIMES as to that exploit as a "back-handed assertion"—whatever that may mean.

Even at the risk of again exciting the anger of Mr. GREELEY, it is worth while to recall to his failing memory the facts attending his last interview with DAVIS. The rebel Ex-President had just returned from a speech-making tour through the South, in which he had expressed the bitterest secession sentiments. At Atlanta, in the latter part of May, he said: "I am not one of those who accept the situation." * * * "I don't believe I did any wrong." About the same time he made a speech at Selma, Ala., in which he asserted that "State sovereignty, although defeated in the late struggle, will ultimately triumph," and again boastingly claimed that "he had never asked pardon for what he had done, and never would, for he felt that he had done no wrong." Such were the public utterances of this traitor a few weeks before Mr. GREELEY hastened to exchange compliments with him.

At the same time, Mr. GREELEY was also making a Southern tour, and profusely flattering the secessionists. At Galveston, according to the Galveston Bulletin, "he complimented the Southern people for the manly manner in which they made war; that they did it nobly, and not as assassins." At Vicksburg, he is reported in the Vicksburg Herald of June 2, to have spoken as follows: "I greet you here as citizens who will, in turn, feel honor in the glory of Stonewall JACKSON, as well as those who were in the opposing armies, [cheers;] who will glory alike in the glory of R. E. LEE, as well as those who fought against him." In this work of winning future rebel votes, he did not confine himself to praising noted rebels, but unqualifiedly indorsed the doctrine of secession. Speaking specifically of secession, he said: "We have no other doctrine respecting secession than that embodied in the preamble to our fathers' Declaration of Independence, namely, that 'Governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed,'—which consent the governed have the right to withdraw. Our fathers felt themselves justified in seceding from and dividing the British Empire on this ground, renouncing their allegiance to the Crown, whereof they had been born subjects, and whereto they had sworn fidelity. Having been educated to believe them right in their revolt, we shall not willingly defile their graves at this late day." We quote literally from the reports printed in the local papers at the time.

It was natural that two traveling speech-makers, holding substantially the same views, should feel drawn toward one another. Accordingly we find that when JEFF. DAVIS was at Memphis, after the various speeches to which we have referred had been delivered, Mr. GREELEY went to shake hands with him. The Memphis Avalanche gave a full account of the meeting of these two great men. DAVIS was staying at the Peabody Hotel, where Mr. GREELEY also lodged. "Mr. GREELEY inquired concerning his health, and was informed that Mr. DAVIS had been looking for a call from him all the morning, and had just left the house." This mutual search of one for the other soon succeeded in bringing GREELEY and DAVIS together. About 12 o'clock Mr. DAVIS "was ushered into the presence of his admirer, at whose hands he met a very cordial reception. Mr. DAVIS was dignified and somewhat formal"—as became a man so respectfully sought after—"while Mr. GREELEY was frank, easy and quite talkative." They conversed together for some time, and "at the conclusion of the interview Mr. DAVIS withdrew with a stately bow, and in a few minutes after, Mr. GREELEY was en route for the railway depot."

In the face of all this evidence—for the facts above stated are notoriously true, and it is only very lately that Mr. GREELEY has ventured to deny "seeking out JEFF. DAVIS to exchange compliments with him"—the perpetual candidate now hurls his most unsavory epithets at the TIMES for simply chronicling his public actions during his Southern tour. Much, however, must be pardoned to a man who has vainly sought office for a life-time, and now fancies that he sees the Presidency almost within his grasp. Even in the midst of his wild rage of yesterday, he managed to make a new appeal for his anxiously-sought nomination by promising that if elected President, "he would save his unselfish friends from embarrassment by not running for a second term." This promise, however, will not be believed. Mr. GREELEY has too often violated all the pledges furnished by the record of his early political course to be trusted. Elect him President upon a one-term platform, and at the end of four years he would be sure to retire from the political partnership of his friends, as he did from the "firm of SEWARD, WEED & GREELEY," on the old pretext of his insatiable thirst for office.

MINOR TOPICS.

The ancient City of Antioch has just suffered severely from an earthquake. Half the town is said to be in ruins, and fifteen hundred lives are reported to have been lost. This is by no means the first calamity of the kind to which Antioch has been subjected. In the year 145, B. C., it was entirely destroyed by an earthquake; and in the years 458, 526, and 587, of the Christian era, it was again ruined by the same terrible agency. It recovered in a great measure from these disasters, but in 1822 another earthquake leveled it to the ground, and since that date its population has never reached beyond six thousand. The greater part of its houses at the present day are built of mud and straw, its mosques are insignificant in appearance, and the dwarfed appearance of its minarets shows the fear of earthquakes on the part of the inhabitants. It is difficult to understand how an earthquake in such a city could have been attended with so great a loss of life.

We trust the friends of the negro among the Cincinnati seceders appreciate the efforts of their prospective allies, the Democrats, to filibuster the Civil Rights bill to death. That measure has now been in the Lower House nine weeks, and action has been prevented on it by dilatory motions from Democrats, which will probably defeat it. This will be one of the many awkward things the Cincinnati men will have to explain when they seek, as they say they will, the votes of the Southern negroes.

The London Economist figures out a surplus for Mr. LOWE of about $10,000,000. This, a flattering exhibit for England, will seem to most American readers a moderate cause for congratulation, compared with the amounts which have poured into our own Treasury for the last three years, and which have enabled the Administration to reduce the debt $300,000,000, while abandoning nearly $200,000,000 of taxes. But it must not be forgotten that taxation in England is subjected to the closest scrutiny, and that the constant effort is, not to produce a surplus for the payment of the debt, which is regarded as substantially permanent, but to keep the taxes down to the lowest possible point. Moreover, the English method of administration, whatever objections there may be to it, secures consistency in the financial policy of the country, and for this, as well as other reasons, there is no possibility of such accumulations as we have seen here, which have been to a curious extent unlooked for.

What has become of the promised investigation into the affairs of the Corporation Counsel's office? We trust the Legislature will not adjourn without seeing to it that "poor RICHARD" receives his fair share of the spoils. It is rumored that an effort has been made, of course in the interest of Messrs. WILSON, PURSER, and the rest to have this inquiry stifled. We are confident, however, that no such injustice to Mr. O'GORMAN will be permitted. The people are anxious to know all about those wonderful street openings, whose cost would seem to indicate that our thoroughfares were to be paved with gold and cemented with diamond-dust. Let us have the secret history of the street-opening "Ring."

The employes of large commercial houses in this City seem to be pretty thoroughly impressed with the notion that pedestrians have no right whatever to a use of the sidewalks during business hours. The result of this delusion is to place the lives of hundreds of persons in jeopardy every day. All kinds of goods are handled in the most reckless manner, and the wonder is that the cases of accident, or, in other words, of wilful maiming, are not more numerous. Recently, an action brought in the Supreme Court of this State to recover $5,000 damages for injuries done a boy named KUTTNER, terminated in a verdict for the plaintiff. About four years ago the boy, while returning from school along West-street, was struck by a barrel rolled from the store of the defendant, and hurt so severely that he did not recover from the effects for three months. As a set-off to the claim, it was submitted that KUTTNER had been injured by his own carelessness; but the jury very properly took a different view of the matter, and awarded the father, as guardian, $750 and costs. A few more examples of this kind of justice would be calculated to exercise a very wholesome influence.

Most of us have heard of that King of Spain who was frightfully burnt about his legs, because the proper official was not at hand to pull him back from the fire. Probably King AMADEUS, being an interloper, who has come to the throne in an irregular sort of way, would, under like circumstances, commit some grievous breach of etiquette, but his subjects are in their way as tenacious of the ancient proprieties as their monarch grilled in story. The Imparcial, a leading journal of Madrid, recounts how, when a train was going to start lately, a corpse was found on the track. The stranger, unconscious of Cosas de España, would have instantly suggested getting it off. He would soon have been made to feel the monstrosity of the proposal. It is necessary in Spain for the body under such circumstances to remain where it lies for the inspection of a particular official. He was sent for. Not for ten hours could this functionary be discovered and brought to the body, and meanwhile the traffic was suspended. In the interests of the traveling public in Spain it is to be hoped that people who feel like dying, will be so obliging as to refrain from walking on railroads. A notice to this effect should be posted.

The case of the late Earl of ABERDEEN, which attracted so much attention here a year ago, is now before the House of Lords. That Chamber is very jealous of any one getting into its august precincts who cannot show a very clear right of entry, and the present Lord is endeavoring to prove his claim to admission. Lord ABERDEEN was at the time of his death passing under the name of OSBORNE, and Lord CHELMSFORD put a pertinent question as to whether there was any reason why he should specially have selected that name. The family could not throw light upon it. Sir ROUNDELL PALMER said the case is not concluded, but there can be no doubt, it is said, of the identity of OSBORNE with ABERDEEN being conclusively proven.

Committee of Seventy—Meeting Last Night.

The prospects of an election before next November for Municipal officers excites a growing interest in the meetings of the Committee of Seventy, and last evening the Committee rooms at No. 52 Union-square, were crowded with members. Hon. WM. F. HAVEMEYER, the Chairman, called the meeting to order at 8 o'clock, and after the reading of communications by the Secretary, Mr. SIMON STERNE, and their reference to appropriate subcommittees, a long discussion followed on how best to constitute the people of this City in the interests of good government for the people rather than for the few politicians, in which discussion the Chairman and Secretary and Messrs. Charles Watrous, Joseph H. Choate, John Wheeler, Frederick Schack, Emil Sauer, Henry Clews, William C. Barrett, Jonathan Sturges, Jackson S. Schultz, Joseph Blumenthal, Roswell D. Hatch, John Foley, George W. Lane and others participated.

The discussion was long, and ended by a declaration that a document expressive of the sense of the Committee be prepared and given to the public.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Preparations for the Republican Convention at Harrisburg To-Morrow.

Probable Candidates—Approval of Gen. Grant by the Westmoreland County Convention—The Success of the Party Apparently Certain.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

HARRISBURG, Penn., April 8.—One of the most important State Conventions of the year will be held in this city on Wednesday next, when the Republicans of Pennsylvania will nominate candidates for Governor, Supreme Court Judge, Auditor-General, fourteen delegates to the Convention called to amend the State Constitution, and will elect the full delegation of Pennsylvania to the National Republican Convention at Philadelphia. But few of the delegates have arrived as yet, but most of them were elected by county conventions some time ago, and the temper of the body which will assemble on Wednesday is already, in some respects, beyond conjecture, as the sentiments of the majority of the delegates have been fully expressed.

It is generally conceded that the Philadelphia delegates will be in favor of the renomination of President GRANT, whether instructed to that effect or not. The voice of the State Convention has already spoken that for Westmoreland County, which resolved that in the strong common sense, purity of purpose, and decision of character so happily blended in our present Chief Magistrate, Gen. U. S. GRANT, is found the true explanation of the complete success thus far of his administration of national affairs; our confidence in him is undiminished, and we are sure we simply express the common sentiment of the true, tried, faithful, honest Republicans everywhere, as well as honest men of all parties, when we say that he has shown as much ability and patriotism in the discharge of his duties as President of the Republic as he did while periling his life at the head of the Union Army to save the life of the nation from armed treason and rebellion.

As a further evidence of the spirit which will probably be discovered in the Convention, it may be added that the Westmoreland County Republicans presented the name of Senator JOHN SCOTT for Vice-President of the United States, and recommended that the delegation of the State should press him for the nomination at Philadelphia.

In State affairs there is not the same unanimity of sentiment, and the session promises to be sufficiently exciting to be interesting. A dozen gentlemen of prominence and worth as Republicans are named for the office of Governor, but the contest is in fact between Gen. JOHN F. HARTRANFT, of Montgomery, present Auditor-General; Gen. HARRY WHITE, of Indiana, now Senator from the Twenty-fourth District; Col. FRANK JORDAN, of Bedford, present Secretary of State; and Hon. W. W. KETCHUM, of Luzerne. The Convention will be composed of 133 members, and of these the friends of Gen. HARTRANFT claim ninety on the first ballot, which would, of course, nominate; but the friends of the other candidates, deny this claim, and the division of the Convention generally named for the first ballot is about sixty votes for HARTRANFT, twenty-five each for WHITE and JORDAN, twenty for KETCHUM, and the remainder scattering. The chances are largely in favor of the nomination of Gen. HARTRANFT. For Supreme Judge, only three candidates are named, the strongest being Hon. ULYSSES MERCUR, of the Bradford Circuit, a prominent member of Congress. For Auditor-General, Gen. ALLEN, of Warren; Col. JOHN W. GHAMPSON, of Butler; EDWARD SCULL, of Somerset, and Col. POWER, of Lawrence, was spoken of, with the chances apparently inclining to Gen. ALLEN. It will be impossible, however, for the Convention not to present a strong ticket, as all of the gentlemen mentioned for the various offices are known as zealous Republicans and citizens of high character. Notwithstanding the Gray-McClure contest, the general condition of the Republican Party of Pennsylvania is most satisfactory. The presence of soreheads in the ranks, who will drift off to Cincinnati, is admitted; but these are fewer in number and of less influence than was anticipated, so their defection cannot possibly put the success of the party in the State in doubt. With wise action on Wednesday the Republican majority of over 14,000 last Fall can even be increased in October and November next.

LATEST—GEN. HARTRANFT THE PROBABLE CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR.

10:20 P. M.—The latest observations of the situation show that Gen. HARTRANFT will be nominated for Governor certainly and most probably on the first ballot. It is almost as certain that the delegation to Philadelphia will be instructed to vote for Gen. GRANT as the first choice of the Republicans of Pennsylvania for President. In addition to the work of the Convention already mentioned, it will select an electoral ticket. No names have yet been mentioned as likely to be on it, nor has any one been named as a delegate to Philadelphia. E. C.

Leading Provisions of the Bill Providing for a Constitutional Convention.

The Legislature of Pennsylvania at its recent session adopted a bill providing for a convention to revise the Constitution of the State, and it is thought certain that the Governor will sign it. The bill provides for the election of delegates to be held on the second Tuesday of October next, and specifies that the Convention shall consist of 133 members, who shall be elected on the cumulative system. Within fifteen days after the election is held the Secretary of the Commonwealth will, in the presence of the Governor and Auditor-General, compute all the returns of votes received, and the Governor will thereupon issue his proclamation deciding who have been chosen members of the Convention. It will be the duty of the latter to assemble at Harrisburg on the second Tuesday of November and organize. The Convention is altogether debarred from making or considering any change or provision, either in language or spirit, of the ninth article of the present Constitution, commonly known as the Declaration of Rights. "But the same shall be excepted from the powers given to said Convention, and shall be and remain inviolate forever." The only other modification of the authority of the Convention is that it shall not create, establish or submit any proposition for the establishment of a Court or Courts with exclusive equity jurisdiction. The Convention will submit the amendments agreed to the qualified voters of the State for their adoption or rejection in such manner, and at such time as it shall decide; and all amendments accepted by a majority vote of the electors voting thereon will become a part of the Constitution.

OBITUARY.

George Dietz.

Mr. GEORGE DIETZ, a veteran of the German Press of this country, died on Sunday, at his residence in Eldridge-street, of apoplexy, at the age of sixty-four, and will be buried at Green-wood to-morrow. He was a native of the town of Wetzlar, and emigrated to this country thirty-five years ago. Since 1851 he has been connected with the New-York Staats Zeitung. He served in the war against Mexico, and after the campaign, was engaged as a writer on several Western papers. On his return to New-York he was engaged as an editor on the Staats Zeitung, and during the last few years of his life has been part proprietor and editor of the Hudson County Volks Blatt.

Rev. Dr. Morgan.

Rev. N. J. B. MORGAN, D. D., a prominent minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, died on Saturday, in Anne, Arundel County, Maryland, in the sixty-first year of his age. He had been a delegate to the General Conference of his Church for five consecutive sessions, covering a period of twenty years.

The Seventh District Indorsing the Administration.

A meeting of the Seventh District Grant Club was held last night. JOHN D. LAWSON delivered an address, in the course of which he said that the result of the Philadelphia Convention would be the renomination of Gen. GRANT, but the party should make his election not only certain but triumphant. Having read the call of the Cincinnati Convention and the manifesto of Mr. GREELEY and others, with the main principles of which he did not find fault, he observed that those engaged in the movement could not expect, by dividing the party on questions that all are agreed upon, to have them prevail in the councils of the nation. He characterized certain passages in the manifesto as equivocal. On the question of amnesty the party had been careful, and confined its action to those who asked for it, while Gen. GRANT favored a more generous policy. He concluded his remarks by stating that the movement grew out of opposition to an individual, and his neglect or refusal to recognize the claims of certain gentlemen to office or their distribution of Government patronage. The following were elected for the coming campaign: John D. Lawson, President; E. C. Benedict, W. H. Christie, Vice-Presidents; J. A. Richmond, Treasurer; Edward Henderson, Recording Secretary; Francis Moulin, Corresponding Secretary.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theatrical.

"PLOT AND PASSION" AT BOOTH'S THEATRE.

Miss CARLOTTA LE CLERCQ, having appeared in a character of SHAKESPEARE's and in one of SHERIDAN KNOWLES', during her present engagement, gave her audience a taste of variety last night by essaying a part in romantic drama of the French school. There is much scope in the heroine of Mr. TOM TAYLOR's "Plot and Passion" for the display of those qualities that endow Miss LE CLERCQ with her peculiar powers and reputation. There is opportunity, that is to say, for a mingling of the sportive sallies of comedy with the deeper and subtler shades of earnest feeling. The lady is one of the few artists who are equally happy in both. The comedy has not a little elegance, gayety and spontaneousness; and her sentiment is genuine and unforced. These accomplishments would be more effective, however, in a play less meagre in diversity of character, and better provided with incident, breadth of color and bustle of action than is "Plot and Passion." It is true that Desmarêts is a great part, and we must do Mr. ROBERT PATEMAN the justice to say that he plays it remarkably well—with keen insight and much pictorial vigor and even intensity. But the figures of the drama are, for the most part, mere sketches which even great actors might fail to render interesting, and which the performers intrusted with them on this occasion make dull, conventional and uninteresting. We fear that, on the whole, the choice of this play was a mistake, fine as is Miss LE CLERCQ's impersonation of the heroine, and clever as is some of the author's writing. The present engagement required at this juncture something of positive strength, and such a selection assuredly does not answer to this description. The house was, however, respectable in numbers, the applause, especially for the efforts of Miss LE CLERCQ, was frequent and hearty, and there was much in the performance to command intelligent approval. "Plot and Passion" is to be repeated on the evenings of Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday; but on Thursday and Friday and at the matinée on Saturday Miss LE CLERCQ will play Juliana in TOBIN's "Honeymoon," and Anne Carew in TOM TAYLOR's "Wolf in Sheep's Clothing"—a combination much better adapted to draw money to the house, if not to set off her fine qualities, than the drama in which the lady last night appeared.

BROADWAY THEATRE.

The house formerly known as the Globe was reopened, last evening, as the Broadway Theatre. A drama called "Gold" was produced on that occasion. "Gold" was written for Miss JEAN BURNSIDE by Mr. R. G. MORRIS. Of its merits as a play, yesterday's rehearsal could supply no indication. It has rarely been given the critic to attend a more contemptible representation. Miss BURNSIDE discloses not only no special fitness for the profession she has adopted, but she appears to lack the physique which would allow of the development of any excellences her quite confidential performances might have revealed. If we except Mr. JAMES H. TAYLOR's personation of Charles Torrence, whose neatly-written lines were cleverly delivered, there was not a redeeming point of the recital to mention. Details of such an entertainment are not needed.

LINA EDWIN'S THEATRE.

The Chapman sisters, BLANCHE and ELLA, appeared at this theatre last evening in the burlesque of "Little Don Giovanni," in which their personal attractions and vivacity secured the artists a flattering reception. During the night an amusing rehearsal of the Boston Peace Jubilee was given by the Hernandez family. The entertainment concluded with the farce of "Slasher and Crasher." Matinées with the same programme will occur every Wednesday and Saturday.

Musical.

"RIGOLETTO" AT THE ACADEMY.

"Rigoletto" was repeated at the Academy of Music, last evening, with the same strong distribution of rôles which produced so pleasant an effect on Monday last. An overflowing audience enjoyed the performance, which suggests no comments supplementary of those already made. VERDI's opera will be done once more at the Saturday matinée, and the composer's "Il Trovatore" will be the attraction to-morrow evening. On Friday, it is believed that "Gli Ugonotti" will be in readiness for recital.

MISS NILSSON'S PERFORMANCES.

"Amleto" was admirably sung at Booth's Theatre, yesterday afternoon, by Miss NILSSON, Miss CARY, and MM. BARRE, JAMET, and BRIGNOLI. The fine scenery used for the performance of the tragedy was shown during the entertainment, and the impressiveness of the opera was materially increased by the beauty of its fresh stage-costume. The house was filled, of course, in every part. On Saturday afternoon next Miss NILSSON and Mr. STRAKOSCH's artists will appear there once more. "Faust" has been selected for recital on that occasion.

EXECUTION IN TENNESSEE.

A Negro Hanged for Murder in Columbia in the Presence of 10,000 or 12,000 Persons—Singular Demonstrations by the Spectators.

Special telegrams from Columbia, Maury County, Tenn., to the Nashville Republican Banner, give the following account of the execution of a negro in that place on Friday last, for the murder of his wife:

"In 1870 BOB BEATTY killed his wife under circumstances of peculiar atrocity, after deserting her for another woman. It was proven in his trial that he had threatened to murder his wife, and when her body, mutilated and battered, was found in a creek not far from where they lived, all the circumstances pointed directly to him as the perpetrator of the crime. He had a fair trial in the Court held at this place, and a full hearing in the Supreme Court, but not a point was developed upon which to hang a doubt as to his guilt. Though frequently urged to do so, he made no confession, but asserted his innocence to the last. The only intimation that he gave was in a recent letter to the woman who had induced him to leave his wife. He wrote to the effect that, though she had been the cause of all his trouble, he had never loved any other woman, and loved her still. The crowd which witnessed the execution was estimated at from 10,000 to 12,000, two-thirds of whom were negroes. They began pouring into town as early as 6 o'clock this morning. BEATTY was taken from the jail at 11½ o'clock, by Sheriff LATTA, and placed with his coffin in a wagon, which moved as well as it was possible for it to do, as the immense swaying crowd followed to the place of execution. The gallows was erected on the bank of Duck River, about a mile west of town.

After reaching the gallows Rev. BLACKMAN WILLIAMS read a portion of the twenty-second chapter of Solomon, and made a very feeling talk to the prisoner. Then came the hymn, 'Show pity, Lord; O Lord, forgive,' the chorus of which was joined in by the 10,000 negroes present. Rev. Mr. SMITH, at the earnest request of BEATTY, prayed earnestly for him, after which the prisoner was made to step from the wagon to the scaffold, Sheriff LATTA telling him he was at liberty to talk if he wished.

BEATY said, 'My friends, I have but a short time to live, and I wish to devote my last moments to telling the truth.' He then went on to relate a good deal about his chicken and water-melon stealing, but said he had never stolen wheat, corn or bacon, &c., and declared his innocence of the murder to the last. He spoke over half an hour, evidently for the purpose of putting off the fatal moment as long as possible. Sheriff LATTA, though inclined to be as lenient as the law permitted, could not help glancing once in a while at his watch.

A great many of the doomed man's friends came to the foot of the gallows and bid him farewell. He received them with stoical indifference. After he had finished, Sheriff LATTA adjusted the rope, pulled the cap over his face, and, telling him farewell, with one quick, firm blow cut the rope, and the wife-murderer swung into eternity, amid the most deafening and unearthly religious yells it is possible to imagine, from the throats of at least a thousand horror-stricken negroes. The women, especially showed great excitement—some of them shouting, 'Glory! Glory!' and even rolling upon the ground in their frantic demonstrations. This is explained by the fact that BEATTY told them all he had repented and wanted to meet them in heaven. His colored sisters really thought they were helping him on the road to immortal bliss. After hanging about twenty minutes, and being pronounced dead by Drs. HARRISON and PILLOW, BEATTY was cut down and carried to his grave, which was but a few steps up the river from the gallows, and buried by his friends. They then had another big singing and praying, after which all quietly dispersed."

GREAT BRITAIN.

An April Sunday Free from Fogs and Mists—The Parks and River Banks Crowded.

LONDON, April 8.—Yesterday the weather was fine and warm, the sun shining out with unusual brightness for this climate and season. London was literally out of doors. The reclaimed lands along both sides of the river Thames, known as the Victoria and Albert embankments, which have recently been converted into pleasure grounds were uncomfortably crowded with people. All the parks were thronged from morning until night. The bands of music at Regents and Battersea Parks attracted thousands. The river steamers were crowded to their utmost capacity. The bridges, and all public places, were utilized by knots of working people—men, women and children—enjoying the bright day and pure air.

No accident or disturbance is reported, although the number of people in all the places of resort was unusually large.

John Bright to Resume His Seat in Parliament—The Ballot Bill.

LONDON, April 8—Evening.—It is announced that Mr. JOHN BRIGHT will resume his seat in Parliament in a few days. He will, however, take no active part in public affairs, and has no intention of again entering the Cabinet. The House of Commons this evening took up the Ballot bill in Committee of the Whole. Mr. BENTINCK and other Conservatives proposed amendments, which were successively rejected.

Sentence of a Murderess.

LONDON, Ont., April 7.—PHOEBE CAMPBELL has been found guilty of the murder of her husband, and sentenced to be hanged on June 20, 1872.

The Queen's Assailant and the Tichborne Claimant—Coolies in Cuba.

LONDON, April 8.—The Grand Jury met at the Old Bailey today, and was charged by the Judge respecting the case of O'CONNOR, the assailant of the Queen, and CASTRO, the Tichborne claimant. Mr. SCHENCK, the American Minister, has returned from Paris. In the House of Commons, today, Viscount ENFIELD, Under Foreign Secretary, in response to an inquiry of Mr. THOMAS HUGHES, stated that the Government was aware that the Havana authorities had prohibited Chinese laborers from leaving Cuba. Mr. LAYARD denounced this action, and urged that a remonstrance be sent to the Spanish Government. Mr. DODSON, today, formally withdrew from the Chairmanship of the Committee of Ways and Means. Messrs. GLADSTONE and DISRAELI eulogized the retiring officer; after which Mr. BONHAM CARTER was installed as his successor.

NOTES FROM THE PEOPLE.

"Delay Won't be Bad."

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

These are the words which were indorsed on his brief by one of the Ring lawyers, in a case submitted to Judge BARNARD, as appears by the evidence before the Committee now investigating the charges of corruption against the notorious Judges, who have made the judicial name in this State almost a disgrace. These words aptly describe the tactics which the accused Judges have themselves adopted, instead of a defense to the charges. Delay is to Judge BARNARD now the one thing needful. The money accepted from GOULD and FISK, the chairs with his monogram, he does not deny; but if the Committee can only be held back and the matter postponed till the last days of the session, there is hope left that able management by expert lobbyists may prevent a vote of expulsion. The evidence already in is damning, and there is no need of any stronger case. Hitherto the friends of the Judges have succeeded in preventing its publication. The interests of justice demand that they should succeed no longer. Publish the evidence and it will be impossible to prevent the Legislature from acting. Public opinion, after the record is fully shown, will demand instant action. It is wonderful that the Judges have so far been able to succeed in preventing publicity. They have been at work secretly but with a large and powerful clique, in manufacturing public sentiment, preparing the public mind to expect that the case for the prosecution would break down. The scraps of evidence which have been published have been shorn of their stings, until a very general opinion existed outside the Bar that the investigation was a fizzle. This, we are assured, is not the case. The members of the Bar Association have the utmost confidence that they have made out a strong case, and that opinion is shared by the whole Association. Let the evidence be published; let an outraged public know just what has been proven against its Judges, and when they are thus arraigned, as the old writs ran, before the people themselves, they will not have the temerity to plead not guilty.

A MEMBER OF THE BAR.

The Charter.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

In reference to the Seventy's Charter, as it seems to be destroyed by the amendments in the Legislature, I beg to suggest that another mass-meeting be held in Central Park, with a monster petition to the Legislature to adopt and pass the original charter, as it seems to be the best that can be had, and will satisfy the great mass of the people of the City. There should be, say 100 men, with desk or table, pens, ink, &c., so that 50,000 to 100,000 names could be signed in a few hours.

I presume we have the right of petition remaining to our masters, or servants, (?) viz., the Legislature.

A TEN YEARS' SUBSCRIBER TO THE TIMES.
NEW-YORK, Saturday, April 6, 1872.

Sheffield Scientific School.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

A few days ago I read in your valuable journal an article on "Science and Classics," and today another on "Clerks out of Work," and I am deeply impressed with the soundness of your views, and the great good the discussion of these subjects must do among parents who desire the welfare of their children. I have several boys growing up, and being a poor man, and hoping that their lot in life may be more happy than mine has been, it has become an embarrassing question with me what to put them at. The Sheffield School in Yale College, referred to in your article, strikes me favorably, and if you will publish the address of that institution, or the manner in which I can get their terms, &c., you will oblige

Our correspondent will obtain from Prof. D. C. GILMAN, Yale College, New-Haven, Conn., any information in regard to the Sheffield Scientific School.—Ed. of TIMES.

A Straw From the West.

From the St. Paul Press, April 5.

Even Democratic Madison went Republican this year by over 250 majority. One incident of the contest is significant. The German emigrants had held a meeting to indorse SCHURZ, and organize a third party. In one ward a special point was made against a strong Grant Republican German because he would not indorse the Schurz movement, and the result was that he was elected senior Alderman in a Democratic ward.

FORTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

SECOND SESSION.

SENATE....WASHINGTON, Monday, April 8.

The Vice-President laid before the Senate a certified copy of the report of the Investigating Committee of the Kansas Legislature, in relation to bribery and corruption in the Senatorial elections of 1867 and 1871.

Mr. POMEROY moved to refer it to the Committee on Privileges and Elections, and said he hoped there would be early action upon it.

Mr. CALDWELL expressed the same hope, and said he had been waiting for the report for some time.

The report was so referred.

INDIAN RAIDS IN ARIZONA.

Mr. CASSERLY presented a joint resolution of the Legislature of California setting forth the perils to life and property in Arizona from the raids of the Apaches, and expressing the opinion that until these Indians be chastised and permanently subdued the Territory will not be safely habitable by white people.

THE BOONVILLE BRIDGE BILL PASSED.

Mr. BLAIR called up the bill to authorize the construction of a bridge across the Missouri River at Boonville, Mo., which was passed.

CLAIM BILLS.

At the expiration of the morning hour, the unfinished business, the Indian Appropriation bill, came up.

On motion of Mr. HOWE, it was laid aside for the purpose of considering bills reported from the Committee on Claims. The bill for the relief of Mrs. MARTHA HOUSE RUSSELL, of Tennessee, appropriating $14,975 to compensate her for cotton and other articles taken for the use of the Union Army after the battle of Stone River, was passed. The bill appropriating $25,000 for J. MILTON BEST, of Kentucky, as compensation for the destruction of his property by the Union Army, was taken up.

Senators SUMNER and TRUMBULL warned the Senate against it, as setting a bad precedent, and establishing the liability of the Government for all property destroyed by the Union Army during the war.

Senators STEVENSON and THURMAN denied that the bill involved such consequences, and argued that this was not an ordinary case of destruction of property, but rather a case of taking property for public use.

The bill passed—yeas 27, nays 12.

Other bills were passed, as follows: The bill for the relief of the United States Express Company by issuing to them a certain amount of United States bonds in lieu of bonds destroyed by fire in January, 1866, and refunding to them the value of certain Treasury notes destroyed at the same time; the bill appropriating $46,000 for HORACE TYLER, of New-Orleans, as compensation in full for work on the bar at the mouth of the Mississippi, and for all claims under his contract with Lieut.-Col. MCALISTER, dated in November, 1865; the bill for the relief of CHAS. and H. F. W. SPENCER; the bill for the relief of those suffering from the destruction of salt-works in Kentucky by the army under the command of Gen. BUELL; the bill conferring upon the Court of Claims power to hear and determine the claim of J. W. PARISH & Co. for damages for alleged violation by the agents of the United States of a contract made with them for ice to be used by the army in Nashville, Cairo, St. Louis and Memphis during 1863; the bill for the relief of the heirs of JOHN MINOR BOTTS, paying them $1,990 60, the balance due for injuries done to BOTTS' property by the United States troops during the war; for the relief of the loyal citizens of London County, Virginia, for their live stock seized by the United States during the war; for the relief of POWELL & DICKINSON, of Knoxville, paying them $64,000 for cotton seized by the United States Army; for the relief of the owners of the bark A 1, paying them $7,850; to pay MINERVA LEWIS, widow of JOSEPH LEWIS, $5,000 for his steamer, used in capturing Island No. 10; authorizing the Internal Revenue Department to settle claim of ROBERT WILLIAMS, Jr., Assessor of Internal Revenue of the Third District of Ohio, for stamps stolen from his office.

THE DEFICIENCY BILL.

Mr. COLE, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported the Deficiency Appropriation bill with numerous amendments, the principal ones cutting down the appropriations for the Quartermaster's Department $425,600, and making a new appropriation of $200,000 for continuing the work on the State Department building.

INDIAN APPROPRIATIONS.

On motion of Mr. COLE, the Senate resumed the consideration of the Indian Appropriation bill. The pending question was on Mr. WRIGHT's motion to reduce the appropriation for the Peton Sioux Indians in Montana from $500,000 to $200,000.

Mr. SAWYER repeated his statement made on Friday, that if we did not make this appropriation as a means of keeping these Indians quiet, we would have to fight them.

Mr. BLAIR favored the reduction of the appropriation. It was easy to say that we must either feed these Indians or fight them, but the fact was that under this policy we had to both feed them and fight them.

Mr. WINDOM said that these Peton Sioux Indians were lead by a Chief called SITTING BULL, who admitted that he had instigated the massacre in Minnesota in 1862, and if they could be got at with powder and lead, he (WINDOM) would infinitely prefer to deal with them in that way, but as the case stood, he preferred to feed them as the cheapest way of keeping them quiet; and he would add that if the peace policy succeeded with them, it would succeed anywhere, for they were the very worst Indians in the country. He read a statement from the War Department showing that the expeditions against Indians in 1864 and 1865 cost more than $6,000,000, and said that if the appropriation of $500,000 would keep them at peace, it would plainly be much cheaper than fighting them.

The motion to reduce the item was lost.

Without disposing of the bill the Senate, at 5:10 P. M., adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

SHIRKING THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.

The portion of the morning hour remaining after the call of States was consumed in dilatory motions and votes to prevent any action on Mr. HOOPER's supplementary Civil Rights bill.

PACIFIC RAILROAD INDEBTEDNESS TO THE GOVERNMENT.

Mr. NEGLEY asked leave to introduce a bill reciting that the Pacific Railroad Companies were indebted to the Government $11,154,745 for interest paid by the Government on bonds loaned to the Companies, and that this accumulation of indebtedness would amount at the maturity of these bonds to several hundred millions, which it may then be impossible for the Companies to pay, and that it is for the interest of the Companies, as well as of the Government, that this indebtedness should be paid from year to year as it accrues; and, authorizing the President of the United States to appoint a select commission of three citizens to inquire into the financial condition of the Companies and their ability to pay their indebtedness to the Government; also to ascertain whether or not the Companies have legally and faithfully applied all their assets to the construction of their roads, and to report such legislation as may be deemed necessary to compel payment to the Government, and to secure the Government against loss.

Mr. BROOKS, of New-York—I object to the introduction of the bill.

Mr. NEGLEY—I move to suspend the rules and have the bill referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The Speaker stated that there was a motion pending since last Monday to suspend the rules.

Mr. NEGLEY—I raise the point of order whether it is proper for the gentleman from New-York, (BROOKS,) who is a stockholder in these Companies to make objection?

Mr. BROOKS—I make the point whether an instrument of Wall-street, who speculates in Union Pacific Railroad stock is the proper man to start an investigation of this kind—a tool and agent of Wall-street.

Mr. NEGLEY—I deny every statement made by the gentleman.

Mr. BROOKS, (holding up some papers,)—I hold in my hand evidence of the truth of what I say. I knew what was coming, and had proof sent by telegraph, and if the gentleman has no objection I would like to read it.

Mr. NEGLEY—I have no objection at all.

Mr. BROOKS—I will withdraw my objection if the gentleman will permit me to introduce these documents.

Mr. NEGLEY—I have no objection. I have no interest in this road. I do not own a dollar of its stock. I am not the tool of anybody.

Mr. BANKS, of Massachusetts—I object to anything except action on the request to introduce the bill.

The SPEAKER—The question is, shall the gentleman from Pennsylvania be allowed to introduce the bill?

Mr. BROOKS—If he permits me to have read all the documents I hold in my hand, and that they shall accompany his bill, I shall not object.

The SPEAKER—The Chair cannot entertain a conditional objection.

Mr. HOOPER—I object.

The bill was therefore not introduced.

THE NEW-YORK MONEY CRISIS.

Mr. HOOPER, Chairman of the Committee on Banking and Currency, offered a resolution directing that Committee to investigate any national bank alleged to be engaged in a conspiracy to lock up currency with a view to produce a money panic, with power to send for persons and papers.

Agreed to, with an amendment by Mr. COX, directing the Secretary of the Treasury to report any information he has received on that subject, and what legislation is necessary to prevent its recurrence.

THE HOUARD CASE.

Mr. RANDALL presented a petition from the brother of Dr. HOUARD, punished as a political prisoner in Cuba, and offered a resolution reciting the facts in the case, and declaring the American nationality of Dr. HOUARD, and declaring that, in the judgment of the House, Dr. HOUARD is a United States citizen by birth and continued and uninterrupted choice, and that the President should promptly demand his unconditional release, and the return of his confiscated property, and also demand a full reparation and apology for such indignity and outrage on an American citizen. Referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, with leave to report at any time.

TIME TO COMPLETE A RAILROAD DENIED.

Mr. TWITCHELL moved to suspend the rules and authorize the Committe on Public Lands to report, on Wednesday of next week, a bill extending the time for the completion of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé Railroad. The motion was rejected—yeas 83, nays 63; less than two-thirds in the affirmative.

AGED PRE-EMPTORS.

Mr. SARGENT introduced a bill to allow aged and infirm pre-emptors on public lands to make the necessary affidavits before any officer authorized to administer oaths. Passed.

CIVIL APPROPRIATIONS.

The House then, at 3¼, went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. WHEELER in the chair, on the Senate amendments to the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill.

Mr. GARFIELD, Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, stated that there were ninety-three Senate amendments. The Committee recommended concurrence in twenty-nine of them, non-concurrence in fifty-nine, and concurrence with modifications in five. The amendment providing that the House Sergeant-at-Arms shall receive no fees or compensation except salary was concurred in.

The increase of salary of the foreman of printing and the foreman of binding, in the Government printing office, to $2,100 each, was rejected.

Concurrence was recommended on the amendment repealing all laws requiring the publication of the laws and treaties in newspapers of Massachusetts.

Messrs. BUTLER and HOAR opposed the amendment.

Mr. GARFIELD advocated it with a modification, striking out the appropriation of $50,000 for next year for that purpose.

The amendment was concurred in—73 to 72.

The Senate amendment, striking out the allowance to the Register of the Treasury of $1 25 for every hundred bonds signed by him, not to exceed $1,500, was concurred in.

After acting on thirty-three amendments, the Committee rose.

Mr. KENDALL introduced a bill to require uniform charges for the transportation of freight and passengers by railroad companies and other common carriers, and to prevent and punish unjust discrimination in favor of or against particular persons or places. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

The House then, at 4¼ P. M., adjourned.

SOLDIERS' HOMESTEADS.

The Act Providing Homesteads for Soldiers as Signed by the President.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 8.—The following important act, which became a law by signature of the President on Thursday last, has not hitherto been published in full:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That every private soldier and officer who has served in the army of the United States during the recent rebellion for ninety days or more, and who was honorably discharged, and has remained loyal to the Government, including the troops mustered into the service of the United States by virtue of the third section of an act entitled "An act making appropriations for completing the defenses of Washington, and for other purposes," approved Feb. 13, 1862; and every seaman, marine, and officer who has served in the navy of the United States, or in the Marine Corps during the rebellion for ninety days, and who was honorably discharged, and has remained loyal to the Government, shall, on compliance with the provisions of an act entitled, "An act to secure homesteads to actual settlers on the public domain," and the acts amendatory thereof, as hereinafter modified, be entitled to enter upon and receive patents for a quantity of public lands, (not mineral,) not exceeding 160 acres, or one-quarter section, to be taken in compact form according to legal subdivisions, including the alternate reserved sections of public lands along the line of any railroad or other public work, not otherwise reserved or appropriated, and other lands subject to entry under the Homestead laws of the United States; provided, that said homestead settler shall be allowed six months, after locating his homestead, within which to commence his settlement and improvement; and provided, also, that the time which the homestead settler shall have served in the army, navy or Marine Corps aforesaid, shall be deducted from the time heretofore required to perfect title, or if discharged on account of wounds received, or disability incurred in the line of duty, then the term of enlistment shall be deducted from the time heretofore required to perfect title, without reference to the length of time he may have served: provided, however, that no patent shall issue to any homestead settler who has not resided upon, improved and cultivated his said homestead for a period of at least one year after he shall commence his improvements as aforesaid.

SEC. 2. That any person entitled under the provisions of the foregoing section to enter a homestead, who may have heretofore entered under the Homestead laws a quantity of land less than 160 acres, shall be permitted to enter under the provisions of this act so much land as, when added to the quantity previously entered, shall not exceed 160 acres.

SEC. 3. That in the case of the death of any person who would be entitled to a homestead under the provisions of the first section of this act, his widow, if unmarried, or, in case of her death or marriage, then his minor orphan children, by a guardian duly appointed and officially accredited at the Department of the Interior, shall be entitled to all the benefits enumerated in this act, subject to all the provisions as to settlement and improvements therein contained; provided, that if such person died during his term of enlistment the whole term of his enlistment shall be deducted from the time heretofore required to perfect the title.

SEC. 4. That where a party at the date of his entry of a tract of land under the homestead laws, or subsequently thereto, was actually enlisted and employed in the army or navy of the United States, his service therein shall, in the administration of said Homestead laws, be construed to be equivalent, to all intents and purposes, to a residence for the same length of time upon the tract so entered, provided that if his entry has been canceled by reason of his absence from said tract while in the military or naval service of the United States, and such tract has not been disposed of, his entry shall be restored and confirmed. And provided further, that if such tract has been disposed of, said party may enter another tract, subject to entry under said laws, and his right to a patent therefor shall be determined by the proofs touching his residence and cultivation of the first tract, and his absence therefrom in such service.

SEC. 5. That any soldier, sailor, marine, officer, or other person coming within the provisions of this act may, as well by an agent as in person, enter upon said homestead: provided, that the said claimant in person shall, within the time prescribed, commence settlement and improvements on the same, and thereafter fulfill all the requirements of this act.

SEC. 6. That the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall have authority to make all needful rules and regulations to carry into effect the provisions of this act.

Trial of John Avery for the Murder of Jacob Erbe in Cresskill.

A remarkable murder case is now occupying the Bergen County Court at Hackensack. On the morning of Feb. 6 JACOB ERBE, employed on the farm of ELIAS CLARK, near Cresskill, Bergen County, went out to milk the cows. Failing to return a search was made and he was discovered leaning against the window of the barn in an insensible condition, a pool of blood upon the floor, and at his feet an iron bar. He only half returned to consciousness, and died in a few moments without speaking. A post mortem examination revealed the fact that death had resulted from a blow between the eyes from the heavy end of a picketing stake such as used by farmers in tethering cattle. The blow had fractured the skull, and death had resulted almost immediately. On the morning of the murder JOHN AVERY, who had lately been discharged from CLARK's employ, disappeared. It was thought he had some difficulty with ERBE, and the detectives immediately went in search of him. He was captured in Thompson-street, New-York, the next day, and in his possession was found a pawn-ticket for ERBE's watch. The train of evidence is exclusively circumstantial. The pawn-ticket for the watch found in his possession, the tracks left by the boots of the murderer in the snow, the tethering stake with which the blow was delivered, and blood marks found on AVERY's boot, is the evidence relied on to fix the crime on the accused. The case for the prosecution is closed, and the defense opened last evening. The prisoner is only twenty-two years old, and his conduct during the trial has been extremely nervous. ERBE, the murdered man, was thirty years old, and married.

The First Assembly District Republican Association.

The First Assembly District Republican Association, last evening, adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we declare our unswerving confidence in the integrity, prudence, and zealous devotion to the public interests of the present Chief Magistrate of the nation, and that we favor his renomination and re-election to the office of President of the United States. That in the faithful collection of the revenue, the reduction of the public debt, and the restoration of the national credit, we see the development of a policy which has already won the admiration of the financial centres of the world, and which places the great citizen soldier in the front rank of eminent financiers and statesmen.

Resolved, That we tender our thanks and congratulations to the people of Connecticut, New-Hampshire, and Rhode Island for their unmistakable indorsement of the Administration, as evidenced by the result of the late election held in those States, a result which indicates in terms that cannot be misunderstood that the people desire that U. S. GRANT shall assume the responsibilities of the Presidency for another term.

France and Her Disasters.

Mr. M. J. MCKENNA delivered a lecture at Cooper Institute last night, on "France and her Disasters," in aid of the St. Vincent de Paul's Lodging-house for Poor Boys. The lecturer, who was introduced by Rev. Dr. MCGLYNN, of St. Stephens, said that while the history of the world affords us a succession of surprises, none had ever been witnessed of greater magnitude than those of the Franco-Prussian war. A crushing defeat had been inflicted in an incredibly short time on a nation whose armies had till that moment been the glory of Europe. Among the causes producing this result, none was more potent than NAPOLEON's defection from principle, and the prevalent infidelity which has been the curse of France. The lecturer closed with an earnest hope that a brighter destiny was before that suffering country, and that it might look back upon the past only to learn experience for the future. The lecture was well attended, and listened to with close interest to the close.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

The following business was transacted at the Exchange yesterday, and JOSEPH MCGUIRE, by order of the Supreme Court in foreclosure, under the direction of JULIUS J. LYONS, Esq., referee, sold the four-story brown-stone house and lot, No. 36 East Twenty-second-street, south side, between Broadway and Fourth-avenue, for $36,000; purchaser THEODORE MOSS. The other legal sale by same auctioneer, of house and lot on Sheriff-street, expected to occur, was adjourned until Monday of next week. At a Superior Court foreclosure sale, JOSEPH MEEKS, Esq., referee, MULLER, WILKINS & CO. disposed of a three-story and basement high-stoop brown-stone house and lot, situate on the south side of Eightieth-street, between Lexington and Fourth avenues, for $14,200, which was purchased by the attorney for the plaintiff in the suit, ADDISON BROWN. The same auctioneers also announced that the legal sale of two houses and lot, located on the south-east corner of Avenue A and One Hundred and Twenty-second-street, had been adjourned sine die, and this announcement closed the day's proceedings. The legal sale of property at Yonkers, Westchester County, JOSEPH MCGUIRE, auctioneer, noticed for yesterday, did not take place as advertised, but was postponed indefinitely.

The following sales of country real estate were consummated on Saturday, April 6—both by order of the Supreme Court, in partition, Messrs. LEWIS C. PLATT and SAMUEL M. PURDY being the referees respectively. At White Plains, Westchester County, JAMES M. MILLER, auctioneer, a house and forty five acres of land, late the property of JOSEPH MILLS, deceased, and situate on the west side of North-street, adjoining lands of ELIAS BARNES and others, sold for $21,000; purchaser, WALTER T. MILLS, one of the heirs to the estate. At Pelham, Westchester County, D. M. SEAMAN, auctioneer, farm of fifty-four acres, with dwelling-house and other buildings thereon, situate on the old Boston turnpike and the road to Pelhamville Station, known as the "McClellan Farm," sold for $14,100 cash; purchaser, R. F. BRUNDAGE, Sheriff of Westchester County.

Today at the Exchange the auctions to be held are of special interest, and the attendance of investors and others should be large. Full details of the proposed sales, with descriptions of the real estate to be offered, were given yesterday, but attention is again particularly called to the sale by MULLER, WILKINS & CO., of City and other property belonging to the estate of SAMUEL PHILLIPS, deceased, and to the extensive sale of Brooklyn lots by JERE. JOHNSON. For further information concerning these and the other auctions to occur, reference is made to our advertising columns.

EXTENSIVE SALE
AT AUCTION,
On THURSDAY, the 18th day of April, 1872,
at 12 o'clock, M.,
of some of the most desirable
REAL ESTATE
in that beautiful and healthful city, viz.:

The handsome two-story house, south-east corner of 7th-st. and Cherry-st., containing twelve rooms; lot 100 feet front on 7th-st., by 270 feet in depth; every description of choice fruit.

The lot immediately in the rear of the above-described property, directly opposite Third-place, being 100 feet front on 8th-st., (Crescent-av.,) by 270 feet in depth. These two properties are admitted to be the best locations on the finest streets in the city, on high ground, and only five minutes' walk from the depot.

The block of thirteen two-story houses on 3d-st., corner of Richmeed-st., each containing six rooms and cellar, conveniently arranged for one or two families, and now renting for $15 per month.

The magnificent Hillside property of 108 acres, about ten minutes' drive from the depot, near the Park, on Cherry-st., with the houses, barns and buildings thereon. Probably no property within the same distance from New-York offers equal inducements to the purchasers of real estate. Situated just beyond the city line, it will enjoy (without sharing in the expense) the advantages of all the improvements that must necessarily be made to that point. It contains a large number of the most beautiful villa sites in the vicinity, overlooking the city, and having the most charming, varied, and extensive views. It is now proposed to macadamize Cherry-st. the entire length. The Legislature has granted a charter for a horse railroad between Plainfield and Metuchen, which will pass within a few hundred feet of the frontage. The city improvements are extending in this direction, and the property increasing in value with great rapidity.

Terms will be moderate, and announced at time of sale.

For further particulars apply to
WAKEMAN & LATTING,
No. 20 Nassau-st., New-York.

Suburban Homes.

Four tracks with steel rails, when completed with cars and ferry-boats unsurpassed, much increase the value of every home on the line of the Central Railroad of New-Jersey. For information as to houses, lots, farms, &c., on the line, apply to A. D. HOPE, No. 119 Liberty-st.

COMPLETE, BEAUTIFUL AND HEALTHY.—A perfect place of seven acres on the southerly slope of Mountain, Orange, New-Jersey, elegantly laid out in lawns and garden; the residence has brick filling, and is built in the most perfect manner for owner's use; 40x88; containing twenty rooms and every modern convenience, including gas and hot-water furnace; the grounds are in the most perfect state of cultivation; the fruit abundant and very choice; trees and shrubbery are unsurpassed, and the situation high, convenient and in an excellent neighborhood; roads leading to the place, and in vicinity, are macadamized, and views of great range are very magnificent; the place has a gardener's cottage, fine stables, hennery, and other out-buildings; is abundantly supplied with pure water. Is now occupied by owner, who will sell the outfit, which is first-class and complete, entire or in part, as desired. Further particulars, photographs, &c., apply to HAMILTON & WALLIS, No. 9 Nassau-st., corner Pine-st., New-York. Orange real estate, a specialty.

W. G. CAMPBELL, REAL ESTATE and Insurance Broker, has for sale and to let furnished and unfurnished residences in all the most desirable locations in Saratoga, at reasonable prices and easy terms, and at rents ranging from $150 to $1,500.

I have also for sale, rent and exchange a number of first-class farms in this vicinity, and some of the finest lots in the village, which I will dispose of on very reasonable terms.

All parties desiring to rent, purchase or exchange can do so to advantage through me. Having been a resident of New-York City for over twenty-five years, I think I can meet the wants of New-Yorkers and others here.
W. G. CAMPBELL,
Ainsworth-place, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

READ AND REMEMBER

That now is the time to buy real estate on the line of the New-York and New-Haven Railroad, because:

First—The improvement of navigation in the East River will bring business nearer to you.

Second—The means of rapid transit in contemplation will shorten the time to present places of business, without danger from fogs or ice.

Third—Although property has been advancing in value for the past three years, the next three will, no doubt, bring greater changes.

Fourth—Farms of ten to thirty acres can be bought in villages near railroad stations at from $225 to $700 per acre for cash and mortgage.

Fifth—As the tide is now setting toward Fairfield County, buyers will be able to sell readily at a profit, should they desire to do so. Apply to MELVILLE E. MEAD, Darien, Conn., or E. F. HYDE, No. 25 Broad-st., New-York.

ANNOUNCEMENT MEANING BUSINESS.
GREAT AND POSITIVE PARTITION SALE OF 250 MAGNIFICENT LOTS ON THE
JOHN S. BERGEN ESTATE in the
EIGHTH WARD OF BROOKLYN,
splendidly situated as to grade and views on
3D (RAILROAD) AVENUE,
4TH-AV. BOULEVARD, 120 feet wide,
5TH AND 6TH AVS.,
42D, 43D, 44TH AND 45TH STS.

☞ The above are not to be offered for the purpose of testing the market.

THE OWNERS INTEND TO SELL positively and absolutely to the highest bidder. High prices are not expected. All attending may bid with confidence, and feel that they are competing at a FAIR, SQUARE AND HONEST SALE for the most desirable lots in the VIIIth Ward of Brooklyn. The leading avenues are opened, graded and finished. Brooklyn City Railroad cars pass constantly in front of the property. Bay Ridge Ferry will soon be a reality. The great East River Bridge is rapidly progressing. Quick transit is agitated with an earnestness that means something more than talk. Lots purchased at prices on April 2 will, in all probability, enhance in value one hundred fold within a year.

Investors and speculators secure maps at once, examine every lot carefully and critically, and then be on hand to bid at the great sale. Sixty per cent. may remain on bond and mortgage. Maps at office of JERE. JOHNSON, JR., No. 25 Nassau-st., New-York.

Also, at same time and place,

Five magnificent lots on the highest grade in Brooklyn, splendidly situated, on the south-west corner of 9th and Prospect avs., Brooklyn. The above should command the attention of all who are wanting really choice property.

Also,

Two lots on south-west side of Prospect-av., 275 feet south-east of 8th-av. Terms easy. Maps at auctioneer's office.

11th-av., north-west corner of Braxton-st., 5 lots.

Twenty years ago this establishment covered just 12½ by 30 feet, (one floor;) now the building stands upon eight lots, in which are five floors, packed with
SILK MILLINERY,
STRAW AND FANCY GOODS,
SELECTED TO MEET THE PUBLIC REQUIREMENTS,
FROM LOW TO RICHEST GRADES.
TEN YEARS AGO IT WAS A COMMON REMARK:
"I NEVER SHOP ON THE EAST SIDE."
HOW WONDERFULLY THIS HAS CHANGED, OUR INCREASING BUSINESS PROVES.
STILL THERE ARE
Thousands in New-York and its environs, unaware that we have establishments on this east side
EXHIBITING STOCKS OF MERCHANDISE,
Which, for extent, variety, and value, are scarcely equaled elsewhere.

A little time spent in examination would, we are sure, lead to great money saving in making purchases. The reason obvious—difference in expenses.

☞ We import quite extensively, have our resident buyers in Europe, purchase largely here through importers, auctioneers, and domestic manufacturers. Having the means, we avail ourselves of every turn in the market. We sell more goods in our line than any house in this city.

BUY FOR CASH. SELL FOR CASH.

We therefore buy cheap, sell cheap, and never charge
FANCY PRICES.

Each department is complete in itself, and the stock so arranged and assorted that ladies can purchase nearly everything they need in our line with the certainty that PRICES are always RIGHT.

FINANCIAL.

CAYUGA LAKE RAILROAD,

State of New-York,

7 PER CENT.

FIRST MORTGAGE

GOLD BONDS.

THIRTY YEARS TO RUN, AND ISSUED FOR $20,000 PER MILE.

This road forms the shortest and most direct route from the great anthracite and semi-bituminous coal fields of Pennsylvania into the central part of this State, and will run in connection with the New-York Central Road, which it crosses at Cayuga Bridge. Traversing, as it does, the finest and most populous agricultural district, generally known as the "GARDEN OF THE STATE," its local traffic will be large, but its greatest source of revenue will be from its coal business. The road is being rapidly built, and will be in active operation during this year. From our knowledge of this enterprise, and after the most thorough investigation, we most confidently recommend the Bonds as a safe investment. We offer, for the present, the Bonds at 90 and accrued interest in currency.

AT

90 and ACCRUED INTEREST.

The Road runs from Buffalo to the Detroit River, and is the Eastern link in the new AIR LINE FROM BUFFALO TO CHICAGO, and has been under construction for about two years past by railroad men who have seen the necessity for a STEEL RAIL, LOW GRADE SHORT ROUTE between the great railroad systems which diverge from Chicago, Toledo and Buffalo.

Among the builders of the road, by whose cash subscriptions 220 miles (out of 290) have already been graded, bridged and made ready for the superstructure, a large part of the steel rails bought, all of the materials for the stations, and a part of the equipment purchased, are:

MILTON COURTRIGHT, JOHN F. TRACY, DAVID DOWS, WM. L. SCOTT, HENRY FARNHAM, R. A. FORSYTH, HENRY H. PORTER, JOHN M. BURKE, M. L. SYKES, JR., B. F. ALLEN, all directors, either in the Chicago and North-west, or the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific; GEO. OPDYKE, of the Midland Road; JOHN B. ALLEN, SIDNEY DILLON, DANIEL DREW, J. S. CASEMENT, J. & J. CASEY, O. S. CHAPMAN, JOHN ROSS, DAVID STEWART, and F. H. WINSTON.

THE ROAD will be

33 MILES SHORTER THAN ANY OTHER ROAD,

either BUILT or in contemplation between Buffalo and Chicago, and will also shorten the distance between Toledo and Buffalo twenty-three miles.

THE MAXIMUM GRADE on the entire line does not exceed FIFTEEN FEET to the mile—and Ninety-six per cent. of the road IS STRAIGHT.

THE ROAD WILL BE COMPLETED and in running order on or before Dec. 31 of this year.

The principal and interest of the bonds are payable either in New-York, London or Frankfort.

We confidently recommend the bonds to all classes of investors.

SECOND MORTGAGE

8 PER CENT. CONVERTIBLE BONDS

OF THE
Indianapolis, Bloomington and Western Railway,
AT 80 AND INTEREST.

From the time we first offered these Bonds they have been rapidly taken up by investors, leaving but a small amount now for sale, which, at the present price, we consider a very cheap and desirable security, as the road is in successful operation, and earning net more than the interest on all its Bonds. The business of the road is rapidly increasing. Over 1,000 miles of new roads are now building, connecting with and controlled entirely in the interest of this road, all of which will be completed at an early day.

These new roads, it is expected, will add at least 50 per cent. to the net receipts of this Company.

We have also other FIRST-CLASS INVESTMENT SECURITIES for sale.

Stocks and bonds bought and sold on commission.

Accounts of banks, bankers and merchants received.

Four per cent. interest allowed on daily balances.

WALL-STREET.

The Tenth National Bank Before the Clearing-House Association.

Investigation of the Matter by the United States Commissioner—The Prospects of Erie—Heath and Raphael's Surrender to Bischoffsheim.

The engrossing theme of conversation on Wall-street, yesterday, was the plot to "lock up" money, or withdrawing from use four and a half millions of the national currency, for the purpose of "bearing" stocks and enriching a few men. This conspiracy, with the news of the unexpected turn in the tide of Erie's fortunes, was enough "food for thought" for one day. People wondered what action the Clearing-house would take in regard to the Tenth National Bank, the institution which has acquired such an unenviable reputation as the tool of the Erie and Tammany Rings, and whether it really was true that HEATH & RAPHAEL had surrendered to BISCHOFFSHEIM. Many did not know that the story was true, but regarded it as another Wall-street rumor. Some were of the opinion that a consolidation of the Erie and Great Western Railroads will be to the best interests of both roads. The "lock-up" conspiracy has failed to effect either the stock or the general market so much as was feared. It is thought probable that the conspirators cannot afford uselessly to carry such a large sum as four and a half millions of greenbacks, without interest, and that the money will be thrown on the market again very soon.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the members of the Clearing-house Association assembled in a room in the rear of the Merchants' Bank, the representatives of fifty-four out of the sixty-one banks belonging to the Association being present, a larger number than has ever attended at any meeting but one since the existence of the Clearing-house. Mr. J. D. VERMILYE presided; Mr. A. MASTERTON was Secretary. Mr. WM. B. PALMER, President of the Tenth National Bank, was there too.

Mr. F. D. TAPPAN, of the Gallatin National Bank, presented a report from the Clearing-house Committee, being the one submitted to that Committee by Mr. TAPPAN on Saturday afternoon, as the result of his examination into the complicity of the Tenth National Bank in the conspiracy to lock up money. The following is the report in full:

At a meeting of the Clearing-house Committee, held on Saturday, a resolution was unanimously adopted, requesting me, on behalf of the Committee, by a letter from the Chairman, "to ascertain and explain the causes that have occasioned the excitement and charges consequent upon the large credit balances of Friday of the Tenth National Bank," and to report as soon as possible to said Committee.

I beg leave to report that in company with CHARLES A. MEIGS, Government Bank Examiner, I called upon the President of the bank, and having presented the letter, requested to be shown the books of the bank, and any papers tending to throw light upon the transaction. This request was granted, and the following facts elicited:

On the morning of April 5, inst., before 10 o'clock, Mr. HENRY N. SMITH deposited in the Tenth National Bank $4,100,000, consisting of checks on the following banks:

Bank of North America	$1,200,000
Corn Exchange Bank	1,100,000
Mechanics' Banking Association	680,000
Bank of the Commonwealth	320,000
Continental National Bank	800,000
Total	$4,100,000

These checks were added to the exchange of that day, which, in addition to between $500,000 and $600,000 loans called in the day previous, caused the large credit of $4,770,000 on the 5th inst. On the same day checks drawn by HENRY N. SMITH for $3,100,000 were presented by him and paid in legal-tender notes over the counter; $1,000,000 was paid into the Sub-treasury on account of a purchase of gold of $950,000 by OSBORN & CHAPIN. This amount was also paid on check of HENRY N. SMITH. An examination of the bank account of Mr. SMITH showed that on Feb. 24, 1872, a deposit of $500,000 was made and drawn for the same day in legal-tender notes, and that Feb. 26 $200,000, and on Feb. 27 $500,000, in all $700,000, were deposited and drawn each on the day of the last deposit.

Mr. PALMER, the President, stated that he had no knowledge of the disposition made by Mr. SMITH of the amount drawn from the bank, and that neither he, personally nor as President of the bank, nor the bank, in any way, had become the custodian of any portion of said funds. Mr. PALMER further stated that he had had no intimation that the bank was to be used for the purpose of withdrawing legal-tender notes from use; but in this connection it is proper to notice that on the day prior to the deposit of $4,100,000 by SMITH, the bank had called in loans to the extent of $500,000, when by its statement there appeared to be no necessity for such contraction. Mr. HENRY N. SMITH is a director in this institution. The President and Mr. O. H. P. ARCHER, who is also a director of the bank, were present during the examination, expressed great regret that the bank, through the operation of one of its dealers, had furnished cause for action on the part of its associates in the Clearing-house, and assured me that no transactions of a similar nature would in the future take place through it. F. D. TAPPAN, Committee.

After reading the report, Mr. PALMER said there was one mistake in it that he desired to correct. It was not on the morning of April 5 that SMITH deposited the $4,100,000 in their bank, but late in the afternoon of the 4th inst. He again expressed his regret at what had occurred; said it was a private matter of Mr. SMITH'S, and seemed to be very much afraid, from the expressions of the members present, that the bank would be expelled.

The report was accepted and became the subject of much discussion, the unanimous feeling being strongly condemnatory of the action of the Tenth National Bank, and quite a general desire was expressed to dismiss it from the Clearing-house. Some, however, were not in favor of so stern a measure, but favored a reprimand that would be a warning to every bank belonging to the Association never to be engaged in any conspiracy to "lock up" the currency of the country under pain of dismissal.

A resolution of dismissal was introduced and another of censure, but both gave way to the one given below, offered by Mr. TAPPAN, the one to expel being lost by a vote of 15 to 39:

Resolved, That the Clearing-house Committee be, and is hereby directed, whenever it appears, in its judgment, that legal-tender notes have been withdrawn from the use, through the agency of any bank member of this Association, to make an immediate examination of the bank in question, and should there appear to be complicity on the part of the bank or its officers to suspend said bank from the Clearing-house until action of the Association be taken thereon,

This was passed, after some debate, by a unanimous vote, and the meeting adjourned.

The reporter afterward had a conversation with a prominent member of the Association, who said:

"The greatest indignation is felt in banking circles. This plot greatly injures the banks, preventing them from accommodating their legitimate customers, the merchants and traders, who cannot get their notes discounted; causes stagnation in all the markets, and would bring about a panic if the "lock-up" lasted long enough. It affects not only the merchants in this and neighboring cities, but trade all over the country. Country merchants begin to settle up about the 1st of April, and it is a very disastrous time to add to the stringency of the money market. The conspirators were cunning. If only the speculators in gold and stocks were affected, we might look on and see them cut each other's throats with pleasure, but such a plot ruins business generally, and becomes a matter for immediate public attention."

"If the feeling against the bank was so general, why was it not expelled from the Clearing-house at the meeting which has just adjourned?"

"Most of us were satisfied that the bank was in the conspiracy, and would have been perfectly willing to expell it; but it is rather a remarkable fact that this is the first time the banks, as in the Clearing-house Association, have taken any official action in regard to any bank aiding in locking up money, often as such things have occurred. If there had been any precedent, the Tenth National would have been expelled; but many of us thought it rather hard that it should be put out without warning, so we merely warned them and all others. If it ever occurs again expulsion will be the consequence."

Just at this point in the conversation a boy came in with a telegraphic dispatch from Washington, stating that the House of Representatives had just passed a resolution, requiring that the Banking and Currency Committee be instructed immediately to investigate the action of the Tenth National Bank, with power to send for persons and popers.

The Tenth National Bank Investigation Before the United States Commissioner—Examination of Witnesses.

The office of Commissioner DAVENPORT, in the United States Court, was crowded yesterday morning by bankers and brokers interested in the expected revelations likely to result from an examination into the charges preferred against the Tenth National Bank. The specific nature of the offense urged in the indictment had been already published in the daily journals, yet it was anticipated that the evidence of JAY GOULD and others who were summoned, would develop some very interesting disclosures relative to "Black Friday" and other Wall-street transactions. The inability of Mr. PALMER, President of the bank, to be in attendance, brought the proceedings to an abrupt conclusion, and the case was adjourned to this morning. In the investigation Mr. A. H. PURDY represented the Government, and Messrs. DUDLEY FIELD and W. H. FIELD the Tenth National Bank.

EDWARD K. WILLARD, examined by Mr. PURDY, testified: I am a member of the firm of WILLARD, MARTIN & Co., bankers and brokers; Mr. HENRY N. SMITH and Mr. JAY GOULD are special partners in the business; Mr. SMITH keeps an account in our bank, and I don't know that I have been doing anything for him within the past ten days; I am not aware that I have borrowed any money for him in that period; the books of the firm will show; I don't know that any money was borrowed for Mr. GOULD; I have talked with Mr. SMITH frequently in the last ten days.

Q.—Have you had any conversation with him on the subject of borrowing money in the last ten days? A.—I don't think I have; he has not directed me to borrow money in that time; I don't see that the Tenth National Bank has anything to do with Mr. SMITH's private affairs.

Mr. PURDY said he desired to prove by these questions that GOULD and SMITH were engaged in withdrawing from circulation large amounts of money from the Tenth National Bank, which is an offense against the laws of the United States, and the statements of SMITH and GOULD were pertinent to that issue.

Mr. FIELD—There is no complaint here against Mr. GOULD or Mr. SMITH. If it is a question of conspiracy on the part of the bank they are not brought in as co-conspirators. If so, the evidence of their acts would be of no value until the conspiracy is proved.

Witness replied to the question that he had not.

Q.—Have you talked with Mr. SMITH on the subject? A.—(After a long pause)—I think Mr. SMITH remarked that he thought it was rather hard a man could not withdraw his own money when he chose; I can't say whether GOULD and SMITH were directors of the bank, but I think they were; I told him it was rather a good joke; this occurred on Friday or Saturday after this big credit of the bank; I had no special conversation with Mr. GOULD on the subject; both these gentlemen kept accounts in the bank, but I did not borrow money for that account; I am not aware that during the last ten days I negotiated for loans of money and paid interest without taking the money, but leaving it in the hands of the lender; I am not aware that Mr. OSBORNE or that any member of our firm did so; Mr. SMITH and Mr. GOULD did not draw checks from our house last week.

Q.—Have you seen any check drawn by your house in favor of Mr. SMITH?

Mr. FIELD said that these questions could be better answered by Mr. PALMER, the President, and at his suggestion the examination of the witness was adjourned to this morning.

At 3 o'clock Commissioner DAVENPORT held Court for the purpose of taking Mr. PALMER's evidence.

Mr. W. H. FIELD, on the part of the bank, stated that Mr. PALMER, the President, intended to be in attendance before the Commissioner at 3 o'clock, but since the issue of the subpœna he had received notice requiring his presence at the Clearing-house at 2 o'clock. Mr. PALMER said that if he could get through his business by 3 o'clock he would come for examination. He asked for an adjournment to this morning.

Mr. PURDY did not oppose the motion, and finally the case was adjourned to 12 o'clock today.

Mr. PURDY drew the attention of the Commissioner to an application made to him by the counsel for the bank. It was deemed that in the investigation matters might come out with respect to the bank which it would not be proper to publish at this time. If a motion was therefore made to exclude the members of the Press he would leave the matter altogether in the hands of the Commissioner.

Mr. FIELD remarked that, under the great latitude allowed to counsel in examinations of this kind, it would not be fair that the secrets of the bank should be published to the world through the agency of the reporters. He was willing to leave the matter entirely with the District-Attorney's office, but asked that the Press be excluded.

The Commissioner said the matter was of importance to the entire mercantile community, and he did not wish to exclude the Press without giving the matter some consideration. The case was then adjourned until today at 12 o'clock.

THE PROSPECTS OF ERIE.

Heath & Raphael Surrender to Bischoffsheim—Mr. Barton on the Probable Business Consolidation—The Suit Against Jay Gould and Lane.

Yesterday afternoon the extraordinary history of Erie received another addition to its already eventful pages. The gentleman who represents HEATH & RAPHAEL, better known as the London Protective Association on this side of the water, received a cable dispatch informing him that they had surrendred their powers of attorney to BISCHOFFSHEIM & GOLDSCHMIDT, with the stipulation that at the election in July such directors should be chosen as would be approved by the majority of the shareholders. This was, of course, assented to. From this new aspect of the matter it is thought the business coalition of the Erie and the Atlantic and Great Western Companies becomes a moral certainty. A reporter of the TIMES called upon one of the Committee of the American Shareholders' party, who informed him that he had heard the news, and that there was an end to things, as far as they were concerned, for that it was indisputable that BISCHOFFSHEIM now controlled seven-eighths of the stock, as Mr. HENRY CLEWS predicted that he would. He also remarked that this would be bad news for DANIEL DREW. "BISCHOFFSHEIM & GOLDSCHMIDT," said he, "have got the gentleman in a tight place, for he has put the money out and can't get away without paying. This English firm has plenty of money. It stands, in the City of London, only a little below the ROTHSCHILDS. It will keep the Erie stock steadily above sixty until the year is up, and it could afford to keep it there as long as Uncle DAN lived, for the matter of that; so that there is no help for the old man. As for us, we are gone up." The reporter next saw Mr. SAMUEL L. M. BARLOW, counsel to the Board of Directors, who confirmed the news, and added that there had been considerable misapprehension in the public mind concerning the capacities of the Atlantic and Great Western, which was due to the persistent lying of FISK and GOULD. They had repeated their falsehoods so frequently and with such emphasis that at last the lies passed current as accepted truths, and when the truth was spoken, it was considered a falsehood, gotten up in the interests of the Atlantic and Great Western. The most common error was to suppose that the Atlantic and Great Western was earning nothing, or next to nothing; four millions was the sum generally stated. But this was based upon the Fall business, which was very dull, whereas the whole year's transactions showed gross earnings above eight millions. Three years ago, FISK and GOULD leased the line at the rate of seven and a half millions, which showed what their estimate of it was then. That they persistently ran it down afterward was only of a piece with their business lives, and could afford no criterion for the judgment of honest men. About the suit against the Erie Road, commenced by the Attorney-General, Mr. BARLOW said: "I presume that it was done at the instance of some of the American shareholders. Probably the Attorney-General will associate some legal representative of the Erie Road with himself in the matter, as he has hardly the time for so intricate and involved an inquiry."

REPORTER—Will you prosecute JAY GOULD and LANE on the part of the Company, or will your action be hampered in any way by the steps taken by the Attorney-General?

Mr. BARLOW—Nothing that he has done can possibly prejudice the suit which we shall most assuredly bring against the late management. Of that fact you may be certain. One of the first things done by the present directors was to appoint a full corps of auditors to go over the accounts for the past three years, and drag to light all the delinquencies. They will, when they have completed their work, report to the Committee on Contracts and Leases, who will lay all facts before the Board. Then we shall take action, but we object to begin before we have the facts before us.

REPORTER—Do you consider the action of the Attorney General premature, then?

Mr. BARLOW—Not at all. It is a grave question, however, whether such a suit can be prosecuted successfully. The same legal difficulties would present themselves as in the suits brought by the State against TWEED and others. But when the Attorney-General was solicited by some holders of Erie to bring the action there was nothing left for him but compliance.

Shortly after leaving Mr. BARLOW's office the reporter met the Attorney-General, and learned from him that the suit had been brought at the request of Mr. SWANN.

The Effect of Example—Decrease of Smuggling.

The conviction of TALBOT and MARXSON, the first-named for smuggling cigars, and the latter for smuggling jewelry, are the first convictions for that offense in the Courts of this district in twenty years. Although the punishment in both cases was comparatively light, the effect of the convictions has been very marked. Hardly a seizure for smuggling has been made by a Custom-house Inspector since TALBOT and MARXSON were "sent up." Either the professional smugglers have become more cunning in their devices for concealment of dutiable goods, or they have been frightened into becoming honest men for the tim

JOHN SCOTT, the colored seaman, who was charged with shooting THOS. MURPHY, a shipmate, in the face, was discharged by Commissioner SHIELDS yesterday, the British Consul declining to interfere on the ground that the Extradition Treaty did not cover the offense.

The monthly meeting of the New-York Association of Sunday-school Teachers was held last evening at the Presbyterian Church, Tenth-avenue and Twenty-second-street. Addresses were delivered by Mr. B. F. JACOBS, of Chicago, and Rev. Dr. JOHN HALL. The attendance was large.

Last evening, at the meeting of the Lyceum of Natural History, No. 64 Madison-avenue, papers were read by H. ENDEMANN, on "Nitrous Oxide;" by H. C. BOLTON, on "The Views of the Founders of the Atomic Theory;" and by J. WALZ, on "The Action of Chromic Acid on Iodine."

CHARLES MAJOWSKI, who keeps a lager-bier saloon at No. 332 East Twenty-sixth-street, was held to answer in $1,000 by Justice SCOTT, yesterday, on a charge of buying a watch stolen from JOHN KANE of Twentieth-street and Avenue A. The watch was valued at $215, and MAJOWSKI paid $80 for it.

Mr. J. WEED BELL, of No. 35 Union-square, desires it to be understood by the public that he is not the J. W. BELL who recently made a complaint of black-mail in the Police Courts. The coincidence of name and business was remarkable, and to avoid further mistakes this statement is made in his behalf.

W. J. POLLOCK, who gave $10,000 bail recently on an indictment charging him with smuggling a quantity of jute bags into this port, gave the same amount of bail again yesterday, before Commissioner SHIELDS, to answer a new indictment found against him on a similar charge. B. W. MACREADY is his surety.

The sixth and last day of the Spring trade sale of books took place at Clinton Hall yesterday, with the contribution of D. and J. SADLIER, consisting mostly of Catholic Bibles and devotional works. The attendance was small, and the goods went at low prices. The sale generally has been satisfactory both to sellers and purchasers.

A meeting of the People's Municipal Association was held last evening, at No. 39 Union-square, and the Committee on Organizations reported that several similar associations were in course of formation in the various Wards of the City. Addresses were delivered by O'DONOVAN ROSSA, Messrs. QUACKENBOSH, ENGLISH, CAMPBELL and HALLERSTADT, and the meeting adjourned.

Rev. WM. M. TAYLOR will be installed pastor of the Broadway Tabernacle this evening. Sermon by Rev. HENRY WARD BEECHER; installation prayer by Rev. LEONARD BACON, D. D.; charge to the pastor by Rev. HENRY M. STORRS, D. D.; charge to the people by Rev. GEO. B. BACON, D. D., and the right hand of fellowship by Rev. WM. J. BUDDINGTON, D. D.

Surrogate HUTCHINGS was occupied yesterday with a hearing in the matter of the contested will of BARBARA SULGER, deceased. Several witnesses were examined, but in the testimony elicited nothing of public interest was contained. The estate involved in this case is a small one, and in the questions at issue there is nothing of an unusual nature. Adjourned until Monday of next week.

HENRY C. COLES, of No. 310 East Eighty-fourth-street, was arrested yesterday on a charge of selling $10,000 of forged Allentown, Penn., school bonds, to WILLIAM MUIR, broker, of No. 113 Broadway. He was taken to Yorkville Police Court, and locked up in default of $20,000 bail. FREDERICK SNIDICKER, implicated with COLES, is now in the Tombs waiting trial for a similar offense.

On Sunday evening, Dr. CHAUNCY H. WOODHULL died suddenly at No. 118 West Twenty-third-street. His death being attributed to an excessive use of morphine, Coroner HERMANN was notified, and his deputy, Dr. JOHN BEACH, made an autopsy of the remains, when it was ascertained that death had resulted from pneumonia, accelerated by intemperance and excessive use of morphine.

BROOKLYN.

It was decided in the City Court yesterday to try three of the Westfield cases yet pending, at the May term.

A valuable present of books was made yesterday to the Mechanics' and Traders' Exchange, by D. APPLETON & Co., of New-York.

The base-ball match arranged for yesterday between the Atlantics and Burnsides did not take place, the Capitoline field being unfit for play.

The gas companies against which complaints have been entered for violation of the Internal Revenue law, are the Metropolitan, Peoples, Citizens and Williamsburg City.

JOHN MAHAN was held yesterday for the Grand Jury by Judge RILEY, for firing a pistol at PATRICK MCGUIRE, Keeper of the Morgue, in an altercation at that institution yesterday afternoon.

Assessor JOURDAN's Assistants yesterday morning captured a large copper still and its appurtenances at No. 267 John-street. It was in full operation, and was turned over to the United States Marshal, but the owners escaped.

The United States sloop of war Portsmouth, third rate, nine guns, Capt. C. H. B. CAULDWELL, went into commission at the navy-yard yesterday. She will transport a relief crew of officers and men for the Lancaster, the flag-ship of the North Atlantic Squadron, and will return from Rio de Janeiro with the Lancaster's present crew.

The small-pox continues its ravages in Brooklyn, and yesterday the Board of Aldermen appropriated $4,000 for the erection of an addition to the small-pox hospital, and $2,000 for the employment of an increased force of vaccinators.

The following gentlemen were elected at the Church of the Messiah: Wardens—John Halsey, W. N. Seymour. Vestrymen—A. G. Johns, D. D. Ives, L. H. Donaldson, Julian Allen, S. B. Bartow, Lewis Morris, T. D. Corlies, Jared Coffin.

On the petition of the Washington-street property-owners, the Board of Alderman yesterday passed a resolution authorizing the widening of Washington-street, by taking off twenty feet from the west side. An amendment to exclude the Eastern District from the assessment for the purpose, was lost.

LONG ISLAND.

The Court of Oyer and Terminer for Queens County convened yesterday at North Hempstead. There are three indictments for capital offences on the calendar. Justice MCKENNA, one of the Newtown Ring, will be tried, his case being taken as a test. Several indictments have been found against officials of different towns of the county. The case of WAGNER, for killing his wife, will be taken up today.

NEW-JERSEY.

The body of an unknown man was found lying on the Erie Railway, near Lakeview, on Sunday night.

One thousand bills were introduced in the last Legislature, and 610 became laws. Gov. PARKER vetoed five bills, and his veto was once sustained.

FREDERICK COOPER, of No. 150 Morgan-street, Jersey City, was found dead in an outhouse of his residence yesterday. The cause of death is unknown, and an inquest will probably be held.

The Paterson charter election took place yesterday. At 11 o'clock the returns were very incomplete, but ROBT. N. HALEY (Democrat) is believed to have been elected, while the Republicans have a majority in the Board of Aldermen.

The colored citizens of Newark yesterday celebrated the anniversary of the passage of the Fifteenth Amendment. The colored societies of Newark, Philadelphia, Jersey City and Paterson formed at Lincoln Park, and accompanied by bands of music, paraded the streets. The celebration was concluded, last evening, by a ball at the Rink.

Six of the members of the present Japanese Embassy visited Newark yesterday on invitation of the Board of Trade of that city. They were entertained in the morning at the Park House, and spent the afternoon at the Clark Mills and the spool factory, taking notes of the works. They are all scientifically-educated men, and one of them is the head of the Department of Public Works in Japan.

Meeting of the Sinking Fund Commissioners—The Lease of City Property.

The Sinking Fund Commissioners held a meeting yesterday, Mayor HALL in the chair, and adopted a resolution authorizing the Controller to lease, at public auction, for five years from May 1, 1872, the markets, cellars, ferries and other property of the Corporation, the leases of which have expired or will expire on the 1st day of May next. The following is a list of the property to be leased:

Fulton Market—Cellars, 14. Washington Market—Cellars, 15. Centre Market—Cellars, 11; rooms on second floor, except that portion occupied by the Eighth Regiment, fronting on Grand-street. Essex Market—Cellars, 11. Franklin Market—Cellars, 8. Clinton Market—Rooms over the same. Gouverneur Market—Lofts and cellars. Jefferson Market—Second floor. Old Catharine Fish Market—Second floor. Third floor Union Market. Franklin Market—Hay-scales; lots, Nos. 64 to 80, leased by the Commissioners.

Ferry now established south side foot of Grand-street, East River, to Brooklyn; ferry foot of Houston-street, East River, to foot of Grand-street, Brooklyn, E. D.; ferry foot of Barclay-street, New-York to Hoboken, N. J.; ferry foot of Desbrosses-street, North River, to Jersey City.

A resolution was adopted rescinding a resolution appropriating $15,000 to A. J. BLEECKER for services as one of the appraisers of the City property.

Brooklyn Reformers Aroused—A New Charter Demanded Immediately.

The Committee of Seventy-five last evening passed a resolution deprecating the action of the Legislature in devoting itself to special legislation instead of the Brooklyn Charter, and demanding of that body immediate action in conformity with the wishes of the great body of the citizens of Brooklyn, and its utmost endeavor to secure the adoption of the charter and of the Registry law forwarded to Albany by the Committee.

Mr. MCLEAN also introduced a set of resolutions denouncing District-Attorney BRITTON as being incompetent to serve as prosecuting officer for Kings County, and expressive of the opinion that he was unworthy the further consideration of the Committee.

The Fisk Estate Transferred to Mrs. Fisk.

The one-half interest held by the late JAMES FISK in the Grand Opera-house, and the improved property adjoining, comprising twenty-four dwellings on Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth-streets, has been transferred by JAY GOULD to the widow of his late partner. The negotiations for this transfer have been in progress for some time, and were closed on Saturday last. The aggregate value of the property is $1,800,000. It is understood that the transfer will prevent Mr. DALY assuming the lease of the Eighth-avenue house on the 1st of September next, as has been announced.

The Guardian Savings Bank.

Mr. JEREMIAH QUINLAN, receiver of the Guardian Savings Bank, gave notice that he was prepared to pay a second dividend, yesterday, of twenty-five per cent. on all deposits. Very few applicants presented themselves, only thirty payments being made, amounting to about $1,000. Ninety-five depositors have not yet drawn the first dividend, which was declared some time ago on all deposits over $200.

Serious Affray in Harlem Yesterday.

Yesterday morning two laborers engaged in excavating a sewer in Lexington-avenue, quarreled. One of them, HORSEY, struck the other, MCAVOY, on the head with a crowbar, fracturing his skull. MCAVOY plunged a knife into HORSEY's side, causing a dangerous wound. Both the belligerents were arrested, and subsequently taken to the hospital. Both are considered to be in a critical condition.

The Iowa "Liberals" who Look Toward Cincinnati.

Alluding to the call issued in Iowa by a few discontented men for a Convention to appoint delegates to the Cincinnati gathering, the Ottumwa (Iowa) Courier says:

"We notice among the names appended that of FITZ HENRY WARREN, the Andy Johnsonite and constitutional growler; also, JACOB BUTLER and D. C. CLOUD, of Muscatine, whose heads have been very sore for a number of years; and further on we notice the name of FRED. TAPPE, of Muscatine also. He, with his fellow-laborers in this enterprise, complains bitterly of the corruption of the Administration. It so happens that a brother of this man TAPPE, one CHARLES TAPPE by name, was last week convicted before Judge LOVE, at Keokuk, of a violation of the revenue laws as a liquor-dealer or manufacturer. We suppose that FRED sees in this pursuit of those who would swindle the Government out of its revenues, evidence of corruption, and so joins J. B. GRINNELL, the dapper little man who has so repeatedly sworn off from accepting office."
